Guide to Free Tax Services

Guide to Free Tax Services identifies the many IRS tax materials and services available to you, and how, when, and where you can get them. Most materials and programs are free and most are available year-round through the IRS. Internet, telephone, and fax access of tax materials; filing options; tax publications; tax education and assistance programs; and tax tips are covered in this Guide. Publication 910 also gives direction to access recorded tax information and automated refund information. Please read on to see which IRS tax services will help make your tax filing easier.

Customer Service

Customer Service — taxpayer rights and good service and still collect the taxes — The Restructuring and Reform Act was truly a landmark in the history of the IRS. It laid out a fundamentally new direction for the agency — the first one since Harry Truman was in the White House. And since there are many detailed and complex provisions in the Bill, including 71 new taxpayer rights, it's easy to get lost in specifics and overlook the whole picture. Through this Act, the IRS was given a new direction and a new challenge, namely to measure its success or failure in terms of its effect on the people it serves as well as the taxes it collects. This new direction relies heavily on improved management, improved business practices, and improved technology.

Taxpayer Rights

The IRS Restructuring and Reform Act of 1998, signed into law on July 22, 1998, contains the Taxpayer Bill of Rights 3. The Taxpayer Bill of Rights 3 preserves the balance between safeguarding the rights of the individual taxpayers and enabling the Internal Revenue Service to administer the tax laws efficiently, fairly, and with the least amount of burden to the taxpayer.

Under this Bill, taxpayer rights were expanded in several areas:

- The burden of proof shifted to the IRS in certain court proceedings.
- In certain cases, taxpayers may be awarded damages and fees, and get liens released.
- Penalties will be eased when the IRS exceeds specified time limits between when a return is filed and when the taxpayer is notified of a tax liability.
- Interest will be eliminated in certain cases involving federally-declared disaster areas.
- There are new rules for collection actions by levy.
- Innocent spouse relief provisions are strengthened.
- In certain situations, taxpayer-requested installment agreements must be accepted. Taxpayers will get annual status reports of their installment agreements.

The IRS revised Publications 1, Your Rights as a Taxpayer, and 1SP, Derechos del Contribuyente, to incorporate Taxpayer Bill of Rights 3 with some of the most important rights. These publications can be downloaded from the IRS Web site (www.irs.gov) or ordered through the IRS by calling 1-800-829-3676.

Restructuring a new IRS that meets new expectations of the public and the Congress will require years of sustained effort. The new IRS mission statement, "Provide America's taxpayers top quality service by helping them understand and meet their tax responsibilities and by applying the tax law with integrity and fairness to all," clearly points to the Agency's new direction. In the past twelve months, the IRS has clarified its direction, developed a new attitude, and created new and exciting business practices. The IRS has taken the first bold steps toward achieving the goals as directed in the IRS Restructuring and Reform Act of 1998.

Good Service

In conjunction with the implementation of new taxpayer rights, the IRS has made many improvements in customer service. The Agency expanded hours of operations nationwide for both its tax assistance toll-free lines and its walk-in assistance at convenient locations. The Agency further increased options for filing and paying electronically, improved access to the taxpayer advocate, and set up 'problem solving days' in communities nationwide to resolve particularly difficult tax cases.

Still Collect the Taxes

The IRS works around the clock to provide revised tax materials to taxpayers. Publications, forms, instructions, booklets, brochures, CD-ROMs, videos, and etc., reflect the latest tax legislation. These products are available to help taxpayers meet their tax responsibilities. Publication 553, Highlights of 1999 Tax Changes, is a collection of the latest tax law changes that may affect you this filing season. You can download Publication 553 and nearly 100 other tax publications listed in this booklet from the IRS Web site (www.irs.gov), and you can request a free copy of any IRS tax publication by calling the IRS at 1-800-829-3676.

Advances in technology have provided new tools and new skills and have enabled significant improvements in operating processes and procedures. Currently, the IRS is capitalizing on these advances and is undertaking the enormous job of modernizing and replacing information computer systems designed in the early '60s. These improvements will greatly enhance the Agency's ability to achieve its goal of top quality service including timely and accurate responses to the taxpayers.

Tax Information — Where to Get It

The Internal Revenue Service produces and provides publications, forms, and other tax materials and information to help taxpayers meet their tax responsibilities. In addition to getting these materials over the telephone, through the mail, at local IRS offices, and at community locations, most materials can be obtained electronically — via the Internet, through a fax machine, and on CD-ROM.

Tax Information Available Electronically

From a computer, you can download and print any of 700 federal tax forms with instructions, approximately 100 tax publications, and other tax materials. Also for your convenience, you can request and receive forms through a fax machine or you can order the Federal Tax Products on CD-ROM of IRS forms and publications.

IRS Home Page: The IRS home page offers convenient access to information 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The Web site has tax forms with instructions, publications, the latest tax law changes, and specific tax information for individuals and businesses. Access the IRS Web site at www.irs.gov

IRS Tax Fax: To get a faxed index of nearly 100 more frequently requested IRS tax forms, dial (703) 368-9694 from a fax machine. Follow the voice prompts and key in your response. You may select up to three (3) items to order during a single call. The forms are generally available for fax transmission at all times. Your order will be faxed back to you through your fax machine.

IRS CD-ROM: Publication 1796, Federal Tax Products on CD-ROM, of current and prior year tax publications and forms can be purchased from the National Technical Information Service (NTIS). Order by calling toll free 1-877-233-6767 (1-877-CDFORMS) or via the Internet at www.irs.gov/cdorders. (Cost is less when ordered through the Internet.)

IRS Community-Based Outlet Programs

The IRS and local community businesses across the United States are working together to increase accessibility of tax publications, forms, and other tax materials for your convenience. In addition to community outlets listed below, the IRS supplies tax forms and publications to a number of technical schools, military bases, prisons, and community colleges nationwide. Most banks are no longer tax form distribution outlets. However, banks that participate in the electronic filing program or are a VITA/TCE site may distribute tax forms. For businesses that would like to participate in one or more of these programs, call the IRS at 916-636-7703. Post offices and libraries need to call the IRS at 1-800-829-2765.

IRS Post Office Program: The IRS supplies free tax materials to many post offices nationwide. Most post offices stock Forms 1040 (U.S. Individual Income Tax Return), 1040A, and 1040EZ with the instructions and related schedules.

IRS Library Program: Members of the American Library Association and the Public Library Association continue to partner with the IRS to provide taxpayers access to a wide variety of tax products. Currently, over 14,000 libraries participate in this program. There may be a nominal fee if you need to reproduce a tax form where stock is not available.

IRS Copy Center Program: Each year, the IRS furnishes thousands of copy centers (nationwide) either the IRS Publication 1796, Federal Tax Products on CD-ROM, or IRS Publication 3195, Laminated Tax Forms. Through this program, quick copy centers and office supply stores can offer taxpayers a wide variety of IRS forms with instructions for copying. It may be a good idea to call the store nearest you prior to visiting since not all copy centers have this material. There is often a nominal charge associated with making copies.

IRS Corporate Partnership Program: The IRS and employers with 100 or more employees are working together to get tax materials to their employees. Upon request, the IRS provides employers with a free copy of Publication 1796, Federal Tax Products on CD-ROM, that contains tax forms with instructions and publications. The employer can then load this information on their Intranet or local area network so their employees can access the tax information. Employees will be able to view and print more than 700 current IRS tax forms with instructions and publications. Prior-year forms, tax regulations, IR bulletins are also available on the CD. For companies that have employees that do not have computer access, the IRS can provide a free copy of Publication 1132, Reproducible Copies of Federal Tax Forms. This publication is a compilation of over 150 tax forms with instructions that can be photocopied and used. The forms are in camera-ready format for better quality reproduction.

IRS Credit Union Program: The IRS and credit unions are partnering to offer credit union members another outlet to access tax forms. Through this program, credit unions can get a free copy of IRS tax products on CD-ROM and IRS reproducible tax forms (Publications 1132, 1132L, and 3194). Credit unions also have the option to load the CD-ROM on their Internet site or they can link to the IRS Web site. Then credit union members can obtain tax materials at work or at home via their credit union Internet Web site or they can photocopy forms at their credit union.

IRS Grocery Store Program: Grocery store chains across the nation are partnering with the IRS to get tax forms to their customers. IRS provides Publication 3194, Laminated Tax Forms, to these stores. Then grocery stores may attach this Publication to a self-service copy machine so customers can make copies.

IRS Newspaper Supplement Program: Through this program, the IRS provides print media outlets with a package of the most frequently used IRS tax forms. The IRS will provide requested quantities of this package to insert in newspapers. Newspapers can also obtain a free copy of Publication 1796, Federal Tax Products on CD-ROM, to load to their Web site. And, when a newspaper is affiliated with a TV or radio station, the TV or radio station may want to take advantage of loading Publication 1796 on their Web site.

TELETAX (Recorded Tax Information, Automated Refund Information, and TeleTax Topics by Computer)

TeleTax is the IRS toll-free telephone service that provides both recorded tax information and automated refund information.

Recorded Tax Information consists of approximately 150 recorded topics, listed below, that provide basic tax information. This Touch-Tone service is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Select, by number, the topic you want to hear, and then call 1-800-829-4477. For the directory of topics, listen to topic #123. You may listen to as many topics as you like during your call. Have paper and pencil handy to take notes.

Automated Refund Information allows you to check the status of your refund. Be sure to have a copy of your current tax return available since you will need to know the first social security number shown on your return, the filing status, and the exact whole dollar amount of your refund. Then call 1-800-829-4477 and follow the recorded instructions. The IRS updates refund information every 7 days. If you call to find out about the status of your refund and do not receive a refund mailing date, please wait 7 days before calling back. This Touch-Tone service is available Monday through Friday from 7:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m. and on Saturday from 7:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

TeleTax Topics by Computer at www.irs.gov is another way to get the listing of TeleTax topics.

NOTE: This year, all TeleTax recorded messages on the TeleTax topics listed below will be available in Spanish language.

You don't pay tax on a Roth I R A

This is the big attraction of a Roth IRA—you don't pay tax when you make a qualified withdrawal, not even on the earnings and gains that build up.

You must follow certain rules, such as holding the Roth IRA for at least 5 years and reaching the age of 59½.

What's more, you can convert many traditional IRA accounts to a Roth IRA. And you can contribute to a Roth IRA after the age of 70½.

You will need to meet the guidelines, and make careful comparisons to determine which choice is best for you.

Other IRA options also offer tax advantages. For example, you can withdraw up to $10,000 from most IRA accounts without paying an early-withdrawal tax, if you use the funds to buy a first home or pay for higher education.

For all the facts on Roth and other IRA benefits, see your 1999 tax booklet. Or check the IRS Web site: www.irs.gov

Videotapes and Brochures on Specific Tax Topics

The IRS produces a variety of audiovisual materials and printed information materials (brochures, notice stuffers, posters, flyers) to keep you "in the know" of the latest tax law changes, ongoing tax issues, and programs. Many of these materials are available in Spanish.

- Videotapes on selected topics are available year-round for loan (without charge) to interested groups or organizations. You can call your local IRS Public Affairs Officer/Communications Manager or Taxpayer Education Coordinator to find out if there is a video available on your specific tax topic of interest.
- Free printed materials are available year-round through the IRS. Educational facilities, libraries, and community service groups can use brochures, stuffers, flyers, and posters. If you have an interest in a specific topic, call your local IRS office to see what print materials are available on that topic. Many print materials can be downloaded from the IRS Web site and most print products can be ordered by calling the IRS at 1-800-829-3676.

1-800 Tax Assistance Telephone Number

If you cannot answer your tax question by reading the tax form instructions or our free tax publications, please call the IRS for assistance at 1-800-829-1040 beginning January 3, 2000, 24 hours a day, seven (7) days a week. To check on the status of your refund, call TeleTax at 1-800-829-4477.

Before You Call

IRS representatives care about the quality of service you get. We can better provide you with accurate and complete answers to your tax questions if you have the following information available.

- ✓ The tax form, schedule, or notice to which your question relates.
- ✓ The facts about your particular situation. (The answer to the same question often varies from one taxpayer to another because of differences in their age, income, whether they can be claimed as a dependent, etc.)
- ✓ The name of any IRS publication or other source of information that you used to look for the answer.

To protect and maintain your individual account security, you may also be asked for your social security number (SSN), date of birth, or personal identification number (PIN) if you have one. You may also need to provide the amount of your refund, filing status shown on your tax return, the "caller ID number" shown at the top of any notice you received, the numbers in your street address, or your ZIP code.

If you are asking for an installment agreement to pay your tax, you will be asked for the highest amount you can pay each month and the date on which you can pay it.

NOTE: Toll-free Spanish Assistance Available — Beginning January 3, 2000, Spanish speaking assistance will be available by calling 1-800-829-1040.

Making the Call

Call 1-800-829-1040. If you are using a pulse or rotary dial phone, stay on the line and an IRS assistor will answer. If you are using a Touch-Tone telephone to dial the number, you can then press 1 to enter the IRS automated telephone system. Listen for and press the number for a specific topic of interest. Selecting the correct topic helps us serve you faster and more efficiently. The system allows you to order tax forms and publications; to find out the status of your refund or what you owe; to find out if we adjusted your account or received your payment; or to request a transcript of your account.

Before You Hang Up

If you do not fully understand the answer you receive, or you feel the IRS representative may not fully understand your question, the representative needs to know. The representative will be happy to take additional time to be sure he or she has answered your question fully.

By law, you are responsible for paying your fair share of federal income tax. If we should make an error in answering your question, you are still responsible for the payment of the correct tax. Should this occur, however, you will not be charged any penalty.

The IRS uses different methods to evaluate the quality of this telephone service. To make sure that IRS representatives give accurate and courteous answers, a second IRS representative sometimes listens in. And some callers are asked to complete a short survey at the end of the call.

TTY/TDD Telephone Service

Toll-free telephone tax assistance is available for the deaf and hearing-impaired with access to teletypewriter/telecommunications device for the deaf (TTY/TDD) equipment. Call the IRS at 1-800-829-4059 for tax information assistance.

Note: This number is answered by TTY/TDD equipment only.

Braille Tax Materials

Braille tax materials are available for review at Regional Libraries for the Visually Impaired in conjunction with the National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped. Currently, these materials are limited to copies of Publication 17, Your Federal Income Tax; Publication 334, Tax Guide for Small Business; Forms 1040, 1040A, and 1040EZ, with related instructions; and the Tax Tables.

International Service

If you are a taxpayer who lives outside the United States, the IRS has a full-time permanent staff at 7 U.S. Embassies and Consulates. These offices have tax forms and publications, can help you with account problems, and answer your questions about notices and bills.

From January 1 through June 15 each year, taxpayer service representatives travel to many cities worldwide to assist taxpayers outside the U.S.

You may call your nearest U.S. Embassy, Consulate, or IRS office listed below to find out when and where assistance will be available. These IRS telephone numbers include the country or city codes required if you are outside the local dialing area.

Explore IRS e-file

Join the 30 million Americans who file their tax returns electronically using an IRS e-file option. IRS e-file is the quickest and most accurate way to file your taxes. It offers a fast refund (twice as fast as filing on paper, even faster with direct deposit); a better likelihood for an error-free return (IRS e-file has less than 1% error rate); the opportunity to file your federal and state tax returns together; proof within 48 hours that your return has been accepted; privacy; and security. If you have a balance due, you may choose to file now and pay later (up until April 17, 2000) using a direct debit from your checking or savings account or using a credit card. To pay by credit card, call 888-2pay-tax (1-888-272-9829). Check out the IRS Web site at www.irs.gov for more information on electronic filing.

Here's how you can IRS e-file:

IRS e-file Through an Authorized Provider (Look for an "Authorized IRS e-file Provider" sign)

Many tax professionals file returns electronically for their clients. You can prepare your return and have a professional transmit it electronically to the IRS; or you can have a professional prepare your return and transmit it for you electronically. Tax professionals may charge a fee to IRS e-file. Fees may vary depending on the professional and the specific services rendered.

IRS e-file Using a Personal Computer

If you have a modem, a personal computer, and tax preparation software, you can *e-file your tax return. Tax preparation software that offers the IRS e-file option is available at computer retailers and through various Web sites over the Internet. Access a list of participating software companies via the Internet at www.irs.gov, click on "Electronic Services," and then click on "On-Line Filing Companies." You can also find a list of IRS partners that provide free or low-cost IRS e-file options by clicking on "Electronic Services," and then on "IRS e-file Partners." By using your personal computer, IRS e-file is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

IRS e-file Using a Touch-Tone Telephone

For millions of eligible taxpayers, TeleFile is the easiest way to file. TeleFile allows you to file your simple federal tax return using a Touch-Tone telephone. If you are eligible to use TeleFile, the IRS will automatically send you a TeleFile tax package through the mail. Just fill in the tax record in the booklet, pick up a telephone, and call the toll-free number listed in the tax package, any time — day or night. TeleFile is completely paperless — there are no forms to mail. It usually takes about 10 minutes and is absolutely free.

Parents!

If your children receive a TeleFile Tax Package in the mail, please encourage them to use TeleFile.

IRS e-file Through Employers and Financial Institutions

Some businesses offer e-filing services to their employees for free. Others offer it to their customers for a fee. See if your employer or financial institution offers IRS e-file to employees, members, or customers. If they don't, ask them to provide IRS e-file as a service this filing season.

IRS e-file at Authorized VITA and TCE Sites

Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) and Tax Counseling for the Elderly (TCE) sites are open to assist individuals with low income, individuals with special needs, and the elderly. Both programs are free and can be found in community locations, such as libraries, colleges, universities, shopping malls, and retirement and senior centers. Ask for IRS e-file at these sites.

Business Tax Services and Information

The IRS has many publications containing information about the federal tax laws that apply to businesses. Publication 334, Tax Guide for Small Business, is a good place to start to learn more about sole proprietors and statutory employees. Publication 583, Starting a Business and Keeping Records, covers basic tax information for those who are starting a business. Look in section Tax Publications for other materials that can explain your business tax responsibilities. For electronic assistance, you may go to the IRS Digital Daily Web site at www.irs.gov and access "Electronic Services." Then look for "IRS e-file Options for Business."

IRS e-file Programs for Businesses

File Form 941 by Telephone

Employers nationwide have the opportunity to file Form 941, Employer's Quarterly Federal Tax Return, using a Touch-Tone telephone, toll-free telephone number, and simple instructions. Businesses that meet certain qualifications are invited to participate in the paperless, 941TeleFile program. Eligible filers will receive a special 941TeleFile Tax Record and instructions with their Form 941 tax package.

If you receive the purple tax package in the mail with your traditional Form 941 and meet the qualifications in the instructions, you can use 941TeleFile. It's easy and Free.

File your 941 in three easy steps:

- complete the 941TeleFile Tax Record
- with a Touch-Tone telephone, call the toll-free TeleFile number provided in the 941TeleFile tax package
- keep the 941TeleFile Tax Record as part of your permanent business records.

The 941TeleFile system automatically calculates your tax liability and any overpayment or balance due during the call. It also gives you a confirmation number as proof of filing your return. The call only takes about 10 minutes. The system is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. And, there is nothing to mail to the IRS.

File Form 941 Using a Reporting Agent

The 941e-file program accepts and processes Forms 941, Employer's Quarterly Federal Tax Return in the Electronic Data Interchange (EDI) format. Returns are transmitted nationwide via dial-up phone lines and menu-driven software directly to the IRS where they are processed at the Tennessee Computing Center (TCC) or the Austin Service Center (AUSC). An electronic acknowledgment is returned within 48 hours of receipt of the return. 941e-file accepts both timely filed returns, and late filed returns for the current tax year as well as for one (1) preceding tax year.

Large payroll processing companies, bulk-filer reporting agents, and/or large businesses capable of developing their own software are ideally suited to participate in this 941e-file program. Small businesses or reporting agents may also participate by developing their own software or by purchasing off-the-shelf software. With the appropriate software, almost any 941 filer can transmit his/her return.

To file using the IRS 941e-file program, an applicant should obtain a copy of Publication 1911, Instructions for Preparing and Submitting Form 8655, Reporting Agent Authorization, and Publication 3062, Requirements of the Electronic Filing Program for Reporting of Form 941, Employer's Quarterly Federal Tax Return. You can order these items free of charge through an IRS Area Distribution Center by calling the IRS at 1-800-829-3676. Additional information on how to participate in 941e-file can be obtained by contacting the IRS electronic filing TCC Help Desk on 901-546-2690, ext 7519 or the AUSC Help Desk on 512-460-4069.

File Form 941 Using a Personal Computer

Businesses that have a computer, modem, and off-the-shelf tax preparation software can transmit tax return information to a third party transmitter. The third party transmitter will batch, and then electronically forward, the return to the Austin Service Center. This program accepts and processes Form 941 in Electronic Data Interchange (EDI) format. The program also automatically conducts security checks, sends acknowledgments, and formats records to be processed by current IRS computer systems.

Business filers are responsible for obtaining a personal identification number (PIN) to be used as the electronic signature. You may request a PIN through a Letter of Application. The Letter of Application is included in the software and can be electronically transmitted to the Austin Service Center via the third party transmitter.

Payment options are available through the Federal Tax Deposit (FTD) coupon system or through the Electronic Federal Tax Payment System (EFTPS). For more information on the newer EFTPS system, see the EFTPS section below.

Electronic Federal Tax Payment System (EFTPS)

Several years ago, the U.S. Department of Treasury designed EFTPS to modernize 'making tax payments' — from a paper-based payment system to an electronic one. Today, 2.5M business taxpayers are enrolled in EFTPS. This tax payment system helps individuals and business owners save time and money in paying their federal business taxes and in making their federal tax payments electronically — either by telephone, personal computer, or through the transfer of funds offered by their financial institution. All federal tax payments (including payroll taxes, corporate income taxes, partnership, and fiduciary taxes) can be made using EFTPS.

You will find that EFTPS is easy to use, convenient, accurate, fast, and economical.

- Individuals and business owners can use EFTPS-Direct to make their tax payments by telephone or personal computer, 24 hours a day, seven days a week. For your computer, free Windows-based software is available when you enroll in EFTPS and use EFTPS-Direct. Using EFTPS-Direct only takes a few minutes — no check writing; no trips to the bank; and no courier, checks, stamps, and envelope expenses. And as an added convenience, EFTPS-Direct lets taxpayers 'warehouse' their tax payment instructions up to 30 days in advance of a tax due date to automatically make their payments on the tax due date.
- Financial institutions are integrating EFTPS into the many services they offer their clients. Under the client's direction, funds can be transferred from the client's account into Treasury's account on a specified date.
- Tax professionals have a number of options to make federal tax payments for their clients:
 - ✓ EFTPS Voice Response System — make multiple payments with a single telephone call
 - ✓ EFTPS PC Debit — use Windows-based software to send payments
 - ✓ EFTPS Batch — use Windows-based software to send batches of payments electronically
 - ✓ EFTPS Bulk — make frequent consolidated payments from an EDI-compatible system

To participate in EFTPS, you must first enroll. For an enrollment form and for more information on EFTPS, call EFTPS Customer Service at 1-800-945-8400 or 1-800-555-4477. En Espanol communication, call 1-800-945-8600 or 1-800-244-4829. With access to teletypewriter/telecommunications device for the deaf (TTY/TDD) equipment only, call 1-800-945-8900 or 1-800-733-4829.

The IRS produces a number of print materials that can provide you with additional information on EFTPS. You can order these forms and publications free through the IRS Area Distribution Centers by calling 1-800-829-3676.

Some forms can be downloaded from the IRS Web site at www.irs.gov, and you can also get some forms via the IRS Tax Fax by dialing (703) 368-9694 from a fax machine and following the voice prompts to get tax forms faxed back to you.

Independent Contractor or Employee

For Federal tax purposes, this is an important distinction. Worker classification affects how you pay your Federal income tax, social security and Medicare taxes, and how you file your return. Classification affects your eligibility for employer and social security and Medicare benefits and your tax responsibilities.

A worker is either an independent contractor or an employee. The classification is determined by relevant facts that fall into three main categories: behavioral control; financial control; and relationship of the parties. In each case, it is very important to consider all the facts — no single fact provides the answer.

Publication 1779, Independent Contractor or Employee, has detailed information about these facts.

- An independent contractor will usually maintain an office and staff, advertise, and have a financial investment risk. Independent contractors will generally file a Schedule C and may be able to deduct certain expenses that an employee would not.
- Generally, an employee is controlled by an employer in ways that a true independent contractor is not. If the employer has the legal right to control the details of how the services are performed, the worker is generally an employee, not an independent contractor.

Those who should be classified as employees, but aren't, may lose out on social security and Medicare benefits, workers' compensation, unemployment benefits, and, in many cases, group insurance (including life and health), and retirement benefits.

If you are not sure whether you are an independent contractor or an employee, get Form SS-8, Determination of Employee Work Status for Purposes of Federal Employment Taxes and Income Tax Withholding.

Publication 1779, Independent Contractor or Employee, and Publication 15-A, Employer's Supplemental Tax Guide, provide additional information on independent contractor or employee status.

IRS publications and forms can be downloaded from the Internet at www.irs.gov. You can also order a free copy of IRS publications and forms when you call the IRS at 1-800-829-3676.

Publication 1518, Year 2000 Tax Calendar for Small Businesses

Business owners who are opening their doors for the first time or are hiring their first employees may benefit from this 12-month wall calendar.

Publication 1518 shows all the 2000 due dates for making payroll deposits, paying estimated taxes, and for filing business tax forms. It also includes general information on basic business tax law, where to go for assistance, helpful bookkeeping and recordkeeping hints, and facts about IRS notices and penalties. Call the IRS at 1-800-829-3676 to order a free copy of this calendar.

Office of Public Liaison and Small Business Affairs

As a national public liaison for small businesses, this office maintains daily contact and exchanges business tax information with IRS external stakeholders — national organizations representing tax professionals, payroll processors, volunteers and social services, electronic commerce, state departments of revenue, small business organizations, and large corporate taxpayers. This office also works with the Small Business Administration and other government agencies to initiate and foster programs and actions to reduce small business burdens government-wide.

The Office of Public Liaison and Small Business Affairs provides 'one-stop' service for sharing 'small business' information. Some of these services include:

- working to establish partnering opportunities
- providing forums to discuss new ideas and feedback
- tracking issues and sharing information
- coordinating liaison meetings
- coordinating IRS participation at meetings and conferences

You can write to the IRS Office of Public Liaison and Small Business Affairs if you have suggestions regarding tax laws, regulations, or policy.

This office does not handle small business owners' individual tax problems. If a problem has not been resolved after repeated attempts through normal IRS channels, small business owners should contact their local IRS Taxpayer Advocate Service for assistance. See section in this booklet on Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) under Taxpayer Assistance Programs for more information.

The IRS produces a number of print and electronic information materials to help new businesses. The following IRS tax publications and small business CD-ROM can be ordered free through the IRS by calling 1-800-829-3676.

- Publication 334, Tax Guide for Small Business (For Individuals Who Use Schedule C or C-EZ)
- Publication 583, Starting a Business and Keeping Records
- Publication 1066, Small Business Tax Workshop (booklet), provides general information about different types of business organizations, record-keeping requirements, and business tax returns. This booklet is used as an education tool in small business workshops given by local IRS offices.
- Publication 1518, Year 2000 Tax Calendar for Small Businesses, notes the most common tax filing dates. A specific tax tip is highlighted each month, in the calendar, to help small businesses not only during the tax-filing season, but also throughout the year.
- Publication 1853, Small Business Talk, tells of the Office of Public Liaison and Small Business Affairs, and lists services and tax materials available to small businesses.
- Publication 3207, Small Business Resource Guide 2000: What You Need to Know About Taxes and Other Topics (CD-ROM). This CD-ROM includes tax information, provided by multiple government agencies, to help small business entrepreneurs meet regulatory requirements.

Many IRS information products are also available on the small business corner of the IRS Web site @ www.irs.gov/prod/bus_info/sm_bus/index.html.

SSA/IRS (Social Security Administration/Internal Revenue Service) Reporter (newsletter)

If you are an employer and have not been receiving a copy of the SSA/IRS Reporter, tell your local IRS Public Affairs Officer/Communications Manager.

The SSA/IRS Reporter is a quarterly newsletter that keeps you up-to-date on changes to taxes and employee wage obligations. This newsletter, produced jointly by the Social Security Administration and the IRS, is mailed to approximately seven million employers along with each quarterly Form 941, Employer's Quarterly Federal Tax Return, and instructions.

Small Business Tax Education Program (STEP)

Small business owners and other self-employed individuals can learn about business taxes through a unique partnership between the IRS and local organizations. Through workshops or in-depth tax courses, instructors provide training on starting a business, recordkeeping, preparing business tax returns, self-employment tax issues, and employment taxes.

Some courses are offered free as a community service. Courses given by an educational facility may include costs for materials and tuition. Other courses may have a nominal fee to offset administrative costs of sponsoring organizations.

Your Business Tax Kit (YBTK)

The YBTK, in booklet format, contains various IRS business tax forms and publications that may be used to prepare and file business tax returns. Besides forms and publications, the kit includes information on quick and easy access to IRS tax help. To order, call 1-800-829-3676 and ask for Publication 454, Your Business Tax Kit.

Taxpayer Assistance Programs

The IRS has programs that offer free assistance with tax return preparation and tax counseling using volunteers trained by the IRS. Call the IRS office in your area and ask for the Taxpayer Education Coordinator or the Public Affairs Officer/Communications Manager for more information on these programs. They can provide you with times and locations of services and information on becoming a volunteer.

Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA)

The VITA program offers free tax help to people who cannot afford paid professional assistance. Volunteers, trained by the IRS, help prepare basic tax returns for taxpayers with special needs — including people with disabilities, those with a low to fixed income, non-English speaking people, and the elderly. VITA sites are generally located at community and neighborhood centers, libraries, schools, shopping malls, and other convenient locations. A number of locations also offer free electronic filing.

Volunteers (college students; law students; members of professional business and accounting organizations; and members of retirement, religious, military, and community groups) may take part in various VITA program activities:

- directly preparing returns
- teaching taxpayers to prepare their own returns
- managing a VITA site
- arranging publicity

The IRS provides VITA training materials and instructors. Training is conducted at times and locations convenient to volunteers and instructors. Generally, these sessions are offered in December through January each year.

For more information about the VITA program, becoming a VITA volunteer, and to find the location of the VITA site in your area, call your local IRS office and ask to speak to the Taxpayer Education Coordinator, or call IRS tax assistance at 1-800-829-1040.

Tax Counseling for the Elderly (TCE)

The TCE program provides free tax help to people age 60 and older. Volunteers who provide tax counseling are often retired individuals associated with non-profit organizations that receive grants from the IRS. Grant funds are used to reimburse volunteers for out-of-pocket expenses. Some of the expenses may include transportation, meals, and other expenses incurred in training or in providing tax counseling assistance in any of the locations where the elderly are located (retirement homes, neighborhood sites, or private houses of the homebound).

Call your local IRS office for more information on this program and to find locations of TCE assistance in your area.

As part of the IRS-sponsored Tax Counseling for the Elderly program, the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) Foundation offers an AARP Tax-Aide counseling program at more than 10,000 sites nationwide during the filing season. Trained with IRS materials and certified by an IRS examination, AARP Tax-Aide volunteer counselors can help with most tax circumstances faced by low and moderate-income taxpayers age 60 and older. Younger taxpayers are helped as counselor-time permits.

To find an AARP Tax-Aide volunteer site in your community call 1-888-AARPNOW, or from a computer access the Internet site locator at www.aarp.org/taxaide/home.html

Bank, Post Office, and Library (BPOL) Program

Even though free filing materials (forms and instructions) are placed in participating banks, post offices, and libraries nationwide, patrons may still need assistance to get the proper tax publications, forms, and instruction booklets to file their tax return. The IRS may be able to provide volunteers to assist taxpayers at BPOL outlets in your community during the filing season.

You can call your local IRS office and ask to speak to the Taxpayer Education Coordinator to request a volunteer for your community BPOL outlet, and to find out how to become a BPOL volunteer. You can also call the IRS at 1-800-829-1040 for volunteer information.

Student Tax Clinic Program (STCP)

The STCP is designed to provide free tax counseling to taxpayers who would not normally obtain counsel in audit, appeals, and tax court cases. Law and graduate accounting students staff the STCP. These students must receive special permission from the IRS National Headquarters Director of Practice to represent taxpayers before the IRS during examination and appeals proceedings.

Low-Income Taxpayer Clinics (LITC) Grant Program

The IRS LITC grant program, authorized under the IRS Restructuring and Reform Act of 1998, gives grants to organizations that:

- provide legal assistance to low-income taxpayers in controversy with the IRS

- inform individuals (whose second language is English) of their tax rights and responsibilities

The grants are not available to individuals. However, through this grant program, the IRS awards qualifying organizations grants of up to $100,000 per year to develop, expand, and continue low-income taxpayer clinics. The clinics are administered and sponsored by accredited law, business, and accounting schools where students represent taxpayers in tax controversies before the IRS or before the courts. In addition, the clinics may be administered and sponsored by non-profit organizations that meet program requirements.

To learn more about the Low-Income Taxpayer Clinics Grant Program, call your local IRS office and ask to speak to the Taxpayer Education Coordinator. You can also call the IRS at 1-800-829-3676 and order a free copy of Publication 3319, LITC Grant Application Package and Guidelines. Each year, Publication 3319 is revised to provide the current year application deadline date. This product is available on the IRS Web site.

Taxpayer Advocate Service

If you have an ongoing tax issue with the IRS, that has not been resolved through normal channels, you may contact the Taxpayer Advocate Service (formerly the Problem Resolution Program) for assistance. The Taxpayer Advocate Service has the ability to cut through red tape and can often help with delayed refunds, unanswered inquiries, and incorrect billing notices. Generally, the Taxpayer Advocate can help if, as a result of the administration of the tax laws, you:

- are suffering, or are about to suffer, a significant hardship
- are facing an immediate threat of adverse action (penalties, interest, liens)
- will incur significant costs (including fees for professional representation)
- will suffer irreparable injury or long-term adverse impact
- have experienced a delay of more than 30 days to resolve an issue
- have not received a response or resolution through normal channels by the date promised

Hardship situations and other issues that are referred to the Taxpayer Advocate are reviewed on the individual merits of each case. It is important to remember, that the Taxpayer Advocate is not a substitute for established IRS procedures or the formal appeals process. The Taxpayer Advocate cannot reverse legal or technical tax determinations.

To reach a Taxpayer Advocate, call 1-877-777-4778. You can also call the IRS at 1-800-829-1040 and ask for Taxpayer Advocate assistance. Deaf and hearing-impaired, with access to teletypewriter/telecommunication device for the deaf (TTY/TDD) equipment, may call the IRS at 1-800-829-4059.

For more information about Taxpayer Advocate Service and for a list of Taxpayer Advocate telephone numbers and addresses, listen to TeleTax topic #104 (See Table of Contents in this booklet for TeleTax page number), or call the IRS at 1-800-829-3676 for a copy of Publication 1546, The Taxpayer Advocate Service of the Internal Revenue Service. You may also download this publication from the IRS Web site at www.irs.gov

Taxpayer Education Programs

The IRS has year-round education programs designed to help you understand the tax laws and IRS procedures. Volunteers trained by the IRS are an important part of these programs. For times and locations of the available services in your community, or to become a volunteer, call the IRS office in your area and ask for the Taxpayer Education Coordinator or the Public Affairs Officer/Communications Manager.

Community Outreach Tax Education

Through this program, IRS staff or trained volunteers will speak to groups of people (retirees, farmers, small business owners, and employees) with common tax concerns. This program offers two kinds of assistance.

- line-by-line self-help income tax return preparation
- tax seminars on various tax topics

Outreach sessions may be co-sponsored by community organizations and other government agencies.

Understanding Taxes Program for Students

Understanding Taxes consists of four separate tax education courses designed to teach students about their federal tax rights and responsibilities and the economics and history on which our tax system is based.

- The eighth grade program, Taxes in U.S. History, details the roles that taxes have played in our nation's history. It is designed for U.S. history classes. Students learn how tax policies of the past have contributed to tax policies in effect today. Teachers can integrate the program into standard curricula.
- The high school program, Understanding Taxes, explains how to prepare and file a simple tax return and teaches about the history, politics, and economics of our tax system. The variety of topics covered in their modular format allows the course to be used in a number of different classes, such as history, economics, consumer education, social studies, government, civics, and business education.

- TAX Interactive (TAXi) is an on-line learning lab designed for high school student and teacher use. Visit TAX Interactive on the IRS Web site at www.irs.gov/taxi for an educational and entertaining way to learn about tax rights and responsibilities.
- The post-secondary program, Taxes and You, is designed to assist adult learners in becoming responsible participants in the tax system. Students will learn how taxes affect people and the economy and how to interpret and prepare tax forms. By learning how to pay only what is owed, managing personal finances will become a lot easier.

Practitioner Education

Through this program, training is provided to people who prepare tax returns and counsel taxpayers for a fee. Classes are held in every state in cooperation with the state bureau of revenue, colleges, universities, and professional accounting groups. Tax professional institutes alert participants of the tax law changes and work with participants to improve the quality of return preparation to reduce errors.

Important Tax Subjects You Should Know About

The IRS has many programs and processes that can reduce anxieties of taxes. A description of some of the more popular ones follows. In most cases, the description lists free IRS publications for additional information.

Amending a Return

If you find that you made a mistake on your tax return, you can correct it by filing a Form 1040X, Amended U.S. Individual Income Tax Return. Generally, you must file this form within three years from the date you filed your original return or within two years from the date you paid your tax, whichever is later. File Form 1040X with the Internal Revenue Service Center for your area. (Your state tax liability may be affected by a change made on your federal income tax return. For more information on this, contact your state tax authority.)

Adoption Taxpayer Identification Number (ATIN)

If you are in the process of adopting a child and are able to claim the child as your dependent or are able to claim the child care credit, you may need an ATIN for your adoptive child. The Internal Revenue Service can issue an ATIN as a temporary taxpayer identification number for children who are being adopted. Parents will use the ATIN to identify the child on their Federal Income Tax Return while final adoption is pending. See FORM W-7A, Application for Taxpayer Identification Number for Pending U.S. Adoptions, in this section.

Collection Process

When the IRS sends you a notice of tax due, do not ignore it — pay the amount owed, or contact your local IRS office by telephone or through written correspondence about the notice. If you believe a bill from the IRS is incorrect, you will need to provide information showing why you think the bill is wrong. If the IRS agrees with you, then your account will be corrected. However, if the bill is correct, interest and penalties will be charged on the amount owed until the full amount due is paid.

If you are not able to pay the taxes you owe in full, IRS staff will work with you to find the best way to meet your tax obligations. This may include an installment agreement or acceptance of an offer to settle the account. If taxes, interest, and penalties are not paid in full, a Federal tax lien may also be filed. Under certain conditions, the IRS may enforce collection and seize personal assets, including income and other property. The collection process can be stopped at any stage if the amount owed is paid in full.

More information about your rights and the collection process are found in Publication 1, Your Rights as a Taxpayer, and Publication 594, What You Should Know About the IRS Collection Process. Both publications are available in Spanish.

Copies Of Prior Year Returns

There are occasions when you may need a copy of your prior year(s) Federal Tax Forms 1040, 1040A, and 1040EZ, a transcript of return, or account information.

A transcript of return contains information from the original return. It does not contain information regarding amended returns or subsequent payments. If amended returns or subsequent payment summary is needed, account information can be secured.

Examples of when you may need a copy of a return or a transcript of return include applying for a home mortgage loan or financial aid for education. While there is a fee for requesting a photocopy of a return, transcripts are free of charge. Make sure a transcript is acceptable by the company or establishment needing your income information.

- You can get a copy of a prior year(s) tax return by completing Form 4506, Request for Copy or Transcript of Tax Form, and mailing it to the IRS address for your area. See “Where to File” Your Taxes for Tax Year 1999 on last page. There is a fee of $23 for each return requested. Please allow up to 60 days to receive your copy.

- For a transcript that reflects most items from your return, send a completed Form 4506 to the IRS address where the return was filed. There is no charge at this time. You should receive the transcript within 7 - 10 workdays from the IRS office’s receipt of your request.
- For tax account information, you can visit an IRS office or call the IRS toll-free number listed in your telephone directory. This list of basic tax data, like marital status, type of return filed, adjusted gross income, and taxable income, is available free of charge. Do not use Form 4506 to request this information. Please allow 15 days for delivery.

To obtain Form 4506, download from the IRS Web site, use IRS Tax Fax system (See IRS Tax Fax under Tax Information Available Electronically), or order by calling the IRS at 1-800-829-3676.

Credits

The tax laws include a number of credits you may be entitled to take. The following are several of the more popular credits available.

- adoption credit
- child and dependent care credit
- child tax credit
- earned income tax credit
- education credits: Hope, lifetime learning
- foreign tax credit
- mortgage interest

Turn to the Index of Topics and Related Publications section and look under “Credits” for a list of the credits and the related publications for details.

Disaster/Casualty Losses

When property is damaged or lost in a hurricane, earthquake, fire, flood, or similar event that is sudden, unexpected, or unusual, it is called a casualty. Your unreimbursed loss from a casualty may be deductible on your tax return for the year the casualty occurred. If the loss happened in an area the President designated as a disaster area, you may not have to wait until the end of the year to file a tax return and claim a loss. You may be able to file an amended return for last year right now and get a refund of taxes you have already paid. If you were located in a Presidentially-declared disaster area, there will be no interest on taxes due for the length of any extension granted for filing your tax return. For details, get Publication 547, Casualties, Disasters, and Thefts (Business and Nonbusiness). You can also download a copy of Publication 1600, Disaster Losses — Help From the IRS, from the IRS Web site.

Estimated Tax

If you are self-employed or have other income not subject to income tax withholding, you may have to make estimated tax payments. For details on who must pay estimated taxes and how and when to make payments, get Publication 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Examination of Returns

If your return is selected for examination, you may be asked to show records such as canceled checks, receipts, or other supporting documents to verify entries on your return. You can appeal if you disagree with the examination results. Your appeal rights will be explained to you.

You may act on your own behalf or have an attorney, a certified public accountant, or an individual (enrolled to practice before the IRS) represent or accompany you. The Student Tax Clinic Program is available in some areas to help people during examination and appeal proceedings. Call your local IRS office and ask the Taxpayer Education Coordinator or the Public Affairs Officer/Communications Manager about this program.

For more information on the examination of returns, get Publication 556, Examination of Returns, Appeal Rights, and Claims for Refund, and Publication 1, Your Rights as a Taxpayer. Also see Publication 947, Practice Before the IRS and Power of Attorney. Publication 1 is available in Spanish.

Form W-4, Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate

Each time you start working for an employer, you should complete a Form W-4. The information you provide will help your employer know how much federal tax to withhold from your wages. If your tax situation changes, complete a new Form W-4 so that the correct amount of tax will be withheld. For more information on tax withholding, get Publication 919, Is My Withholding Correct for 2000?

How do you qualify for the Earned Income Tax Credit?

If you work hard but don't earn a high income, EITC can mean you'll pay less tax, no tax or even get a refund.

You may be eligible if you have two qualifying children and earnings under $30,580 in 1999. Or one qualifying child and earnings under $26,928. Or no child and earnings under $10,200.

To get all the facts, call 1-800-829-3676 for IRS Pub. 596, Earned Income Credit.
IRS Web site: www.irs.gov

The Internal Revenue Service  Working to put service first

Form W-5, Earned Income Credit Advance Payment Certificate

In 2000, you may be able to file a Form W-5 with your employer for the Advance EITC if:

- 1) you expect you will be eligible for the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC), and
- 2) if you will have a qualifying child on your 2000 Federal Tax Return.

Filing for the Advance EITC will allow you to receive partial payment of the EITC during the year rather than only when you file your tax return. The amount of the Advance EITC payments you receive will be shown on your Form W-2, Wage and Tax Statement. For more information, get Publication 596, Earned Income Credit. This publication is available in Spanish.

Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number

If you are required to have an identifying number for federal tax purposes, but cannot obtain a social security number (SSN), the IRS will issue an individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN). The IRS will issue this number for a nonresident or resident alien who does not have and is not eligible to get an SSN issued by the Social Security Administration (SSA). To apply for an ITIN, file Form W-7 with the IRS.

NOTE: An ITIN is for tax use only. It does not entitle you to social security benefits or change your employment or immigration status under U.S. law.

Form W-7A, Application for Taxpayer Identification Number for Pending U.S. Adoptions

If you have a child placed in your home for legal adoption, the adoption is not yet final, and you cannot obtain an SSN for that child, you must get an adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN) if you want to claim various tax benefits (but not the earned income tax credit). When the adoption is final, you should no longer use the ATIN. Instead, you must obtain a social security number issued by the Social Security Administration and use it.

Late (Overdue) Returns

Sometimes people do not file their tax return(s) because of personal problems, no money to pay, lost records, or confusion over complex tax rules.

If you have not filed your federal income tax return for a year or more and should have filed, IRS staff will work with you to help you get back on track. Copies of missing documents like Form W-2, Wage and Tax Statement, can often be retrieved. If you owe taxes, the IRS will explain your payment options. And if you have a refund coming, they will explain the time limit on getting it.

Call your local IRS office or call toll-free 1-800-829-1040 for assistance. Remember, interest and penalties are adding up if you owe taxes, and time is running out if you are due a refund.

Social Security Number (SSN)

Your SSN is not posted anywhere in your tax package. So...make sure you write your SSN on your Form 1040, 1040A, or 1040EZ and on each supporting schedule or form that you include with your return when you file it. List the complete and correct SSN issued by the Social Security Administration (SSA) for yourself, spouse, and each dependent on your tax return.

Name Change

If your name has changed for some reason, like marriage or divorce, notify the Social Security Administration (SSA) immediately.

If the name and social security number you show on your tax return does not match the one SSA has on record, there can be a processing delay, which could hold up your refund.

Dependent's SSN

If you claim an exemption for a dependent, you are required to show his or her social security number on your tax return.

If you do not list a complete and correct social security number issued by the SSA, the IRS may disallow the exemption for that dependent.

To get a social security number, contact the nearest Social Security Administration office to get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card.

If you are not eligible to obtain a social security number from the SSA, use an IRS individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN) instead of a social security number. To get an ITIN, contact the IRS to get Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number.

Tips When Filing Your Return

Gathering forms, receipts, and other paperwork to file your taxes is only half the battle. Once you've completed your forms, it is equally important to double-check your figures, information, and packaging procedures (as applicable to your filing method).

Make certain that you include your social security number (SSN) on each page of your return and supporting schedules and forms when you file your return. (If you use your tax package, remember your SSN is not pre-printed on the address label or the forms.) Always review your filing entries for misprinted or overlooked data. And with a paper return, also review your forms for miscalculations. Any mistake can cause processing delays that may hold up your refund. When mailing a paper return, make sure you have enough postage and your complete return address on the IRS envelope to avoid mailing delays. If you owe taxes, remember any delay could cause you notices, penalties, and interest charges.

The tips below can serve as your checklist to prevent filing mistakes.

Important Parts of Your Return

- Enter Social Security Number(S)?

Make sure your social security number is on your return and all supporting schedules and forms.

- Check Age/Blindness Box?

If you are age 65 or older or blind, or your spouse is age 65 or older or blind, make sure you notate the appropriate box(es) on Form 1040 or Form 1040A.

- Claim Child Tax Credit?

If you have income below a certain level, and a child under age 17, you may be able to claim this credit. Read about this credit in your Forms 1040 or 1040A Instructions.

- Claim Earned Income Credit; Figure Correctly?

This tax credit can help some people who work and have income below a certain level. For more information on whether you qualify and how to figure the credit, get Publication 596, Earned Income Credit, or Publication 596SP, Crédito por Ingreso del Trabajo.

- Enter Federal Income Tax Withheld, not Social Security Tax, on the Return? Form W-2, Wage and Tax Statement, shows both the federal income tax and FICA (social security tax) withheld. Remember to use the amount for federal income tax withheld on your return to calculate your total income tax payments.

- Enter Correct Standard Deduction Amount?

If you do not itemize deductions, use the correct standard deduction chart to find the right amount.

- Check Refund or Balance Due Amount?

On paper return, check your addition and subtraction. If your total payments are more than your total tax, you are due a refund. A balance due is figured when your taxes due are more than the amount you have already paid. If you make a payment by check, you should make the check out to the United States Treasury.

- Take Correct Tax from Tax Table?

When using the tax table, first you have to take the amount shown on the taxable income line of your Form 1040, 1040A, or 1040EZ and find the line in the tax table showing that amount. Next, find the column for your marital status (married filing joint, single, etc.) and read down the column. The amount shown where the income line and filing status column meet is your tax.

Important Double-Checks on Your Paper Return Before Mailing

- Attach Copy B of all Forms W-2.
- Attach all required forms and related schedules. Write your SSN (and spouse's if filing joint) on your return form and supporting schedules and forms.
- Place preprinted address label on your return and make any necessary changes on it.
- Sign and date your return (both husband and wife must sign a joint return).
- If you owe tax, include your check or money order payable to United States Treasury. Write your social security number, daytime telephone number, tax form number, and tax year on your check or money order.
- Make a copy of the return for your records.

Important Mailing Procedures

- Use preprinted envelope that came in the tax package to mail your return. If you do not have one, address an envelope to the Internal Revenue Service Center for your state.
- Write your complete return address on the envelope.
- Attach the correct postage.

'Where to File' Your Taxes for Tax Year 1999

This filing season (for Tax Year 1999) most 1040 tax packages will contain an envelope with two labels. The two labels will enable the IRS to more efficiently sort the refund returns from the remittance returns.

These labels will contain the address of the IRS Service Center and separate zip+4 zip codes and PostNet barcodes. One of the labels will be used by taxpayers filing for a refund, or the other label will be used by taxpayers filing a balance due return and remittance.

In addition, the 'Where to File' instructions will have the same service center addresses with the same two zip codes. This will allow the taxpayers or practitioners to place a handwritten address on their tax return envelope and the U.S. Postal Service will imprint the proper PostNet barcode on the face of the envelope. Barcodes will permit the tax returns to be sorted.

ONE IN SIX MISSING CHILDREN IS

recovered when someone just like you takes the time to look at their picture, spots them, and notifies the authorities to get them home. The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has joined the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children in their search for America's missing children, and we need your help.

As a proud sponsor of the Picture Them Home campaign, the IRS now features images and information about missing children in many IRS tax publications. Join us by taking the time to look at pictures of missing children. And please, maintain high quality photos of your own children for use in case of emergency.
