Department of the Treasury
Internal Revenue Service

(July 2000)

Political Organization Report of Contributions and Expenditures

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

General Instructions

Purpose of Form

Unless an exception applies (see Who Must File below), a section 527 political organization must file Form 8872 to report certain contributions received and expenditures made after July 1, 2000. Generally, an organization that is required to file Form 8872 also must file Form 8871, Political Organization Notice of Section 527 Status, within 24 hours of the organization's formation. An organization already in existence on July 30, 2000, must have filed Form 8871 by July 31, 2000.

Note: The organization is not required to report contributions accepted or expenditures made after July 1, 2000, if they were received or made under a contract entered into before July 2, 2000.

Who Must File

Every section 527 political organization that accepts a contribution or makes an expenditure for an exempt function during the calendar year must file Form 8872, except:

- A political organization that is not required to file Form 8871 or
- A state or local committee of a political party or political committee of a state or local candidate.

When To File

Due dates for Form 8872 vary depending on whether the form is due for a reporting period that occurs during:

- A calendar year in which a regularly scheduled election is held or
- Any other calendar year.

Note: If any due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the organization may file on the next business day.

Election means:

- A general, special, primary, or runoff election for a Federal office,
- A convention or caucus of a political party which has authority to nominate a candidate for Federal office,
- A primary election held for the selection of delegates to a national nominating convention of a political party, or
- A primary election held for the expression of a preference for the nomination of individuals for election to the office of President.

General election means:

- An election for a Federal office held in even numbered years on the Tuesday following the first Monday in November or
- An election held to fill a vacancy in a Federal office (i.e., a special election) that is intended to result in the final selection of a single individual to the office at stake in a general election.

Calendar Years That Include a Regularly Scheduled Election

The organization may opt to file its reports on either a quarterly or monthly basis, but it must file on the same basis for the entire calendar year.

Quarterly reports. File the first report for the first quarter of the calendar year in which the organization accepts a contribution or makes an expenditure. Quarterly reports are due by the 15th day after the last day of each calendar quarter, except the year-end report which is due by January 31 of the following year. In addition, the organization may have to file a pre-election report, a post-general election report, or both, as explained below.

Monthly reports. File the first report for the first month of the calendar year in which the organization accepts a contribution or makes an expenditure. Reports are due by the 20th day after the end of the month. This report must reflect all reportable contributions accepted and expenditures made during the month for which the report is being filed. No monthly reports are due for October and November. Instead, the organization must file a pre-general election report and a post-general election report (see Pre-election report and Post-general election report below). In addition, a year-end report must also be filed by January 31 of the following year instead of a monthly report for December.

Pre-election report. This report must be filed before any election for which the organization made a contribution or expenditure. This report must be filed by the:

- 12th day before the election or
- 15th day before the election, if the organization is posting the report by certified or registered mail.

This report must reflect all reportable contributions accepted and expenditures made through the 20th day before the election.

Note: For any pre-election report that would otherwise be due before July 31, 2000, under the above rules, the due date is automatically extended until July 31, 2000.

Post-general election report. File by the 30th day after the general election. This report must reflect all reportable contributions accepted and expenditures made through the 20th day after the general election.

Other Calendar Years

The organization may opt to file its reports on either a semiannual or monthly basis, but it must file on the same basis for the entire calendar year.

Semiannual reports. File the mid-year report by July 31 for the period beginning January 1 through June 30. File the year-end report by January 31 of the following year for the period beginning July 1 and ending December 31.

Monthly reports. File the first report for the first month of the calendar year in which the organization accepts a contribution or makes an expenditure. Reports are due by the 20th day after the end of the month, except for the December report, which is due on January 31 of the following year. This report must reflect all reportable contributions accepted and expenditures made during the month for which the report is being filed.
