Dear	:

This letter responds to your letter, dated May 17, 1999, and subsequent correspondence submitted on behalf of  $\underline{X}$ , requesting a ruling under § 1362(b)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The information submitted states that  $\underline{X}$  was incorporated on D1. A, the president of  $\underline{X}$ , represents that  $\underline{X}$  was intended to be an S corporation beginning Year 1, its first taxable year. The D2 Minutes of Regular Meeting of the Board of Directors of  $\underline{X}$ evidence this intent. For Year 1, and subsequent years,  $\underline{X}$  has filed a Form 1120S, U.S. Income Tax Return for an S Corporation and  $\underline{X}$ 's shareholders have filed individual tax returns consistent with  $\underline{X}$  being an S Corporation. However, the Service Center has informed  $\underline{X}$  that it does not have a copy of  $\underline{X}$ 's Form 2553, Election by a Small Business Corporation.

Section 1362(b)(5) of the Code provides that if -- (A) an election under § 1362(a) is made for any taxable year after the date prescribed by § 1362(b) such election for such taxable year or no such election is made for any taxable year, and (B) the Secretary determines that there was reasonable cause for the failure to timely make such election, the Secretary may treat such an election as timely made for such taxable year.

Based solely on the facts and the representations submitted, we conclude that  $\underline{X}$  has established reasonable cause for failing to make a timely election to be an S corporation for  $\underline{X}$ 's Year 1 taxable year. Accordingly, provided that  $\underline{X}$  makes an election to be an S corporation by filing a completed Form 2553 with the appropriate service center effective for its Year 1 taxable year, within 60 days following the date of this letter, then such election will be treated as timely made for  $\underline{X}$ 's Year 1 taxable year. A copy of this letter should be attached to the Form 2553.

Except as specifically set forth above, no opinion is expressed concerning the federal tax consequences of the facts described above under any other provision of the Code, including whether  $\underline{X}$  was or is a small business corporation under § 1361(b) of the Code.

This ruling is directed only to the taxpayer requesting it. Section 6110(k)(3) of the Code provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent.

In accordance with the power of attorney on file with this office, a copy of this letter is being sent to  $\underline{X}$ 's authorized representative.

Sincerely yours,

J. THOMAS HINES Acting Branch Chief Branch 2 Office of the Assistant Chief Counsel (Passthroughs and Special Industries)
