Dear :

This letter responds to a letter dated September 12, 2003, and subsequent correspondence, submitted on behalf of \underline{X} by its authorized representative, requesting a ruling under § 1362(b)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The information submitted states that \underline{A} , the president and sole shareholder of \underline{X} , intended to elect for \underline{X} to be an S corporation effective $\underline{D1}$. However, \underline{A} inadvertently failed to timely file a Form 2553, Election by a Small Business Corporation, for \underline{X} .

Section 1362(b)(5) provides that if - (A) an election under § 1362(a) is made for any taxable year after the date prescribed by § 1362(b) for making such election for such taxable year or no such election is made for any taxable year, and (B) the Secretary determines that there was reasonable cause for the failure to timely make such election, the Secretary may treat such an election as timely made for such taxable year.

Based solely on the facts and representations submitted, we conclude that \underline{X} has established reasonable cause for failing to make a timely election to be an S corporation effective $\underline{D1}$. Accordingly, provided that \underline{X} makes an election to be an S corporation by filing a completed Form 2553 effective $\underline{D1}$, along with a copy of this letter, with the appropriate service center within 60 days from the date of this letter, then such election will be treated as timely made for D1.

Except as specifically set forth above, no opinion is expressed concerning the federal tax consequences of the facts described above under any other provision of the Code, include whether \underline{X} was or is a small business corporation under § 1361(b).

This ruling is directed only to the taxpayer requesting it. Section 6110(k)(3) provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent.

In accordance with the power of attorney on file with this office, a copy of this letter is being sent to \underline{X} 's authorized representative.

Sincerely,

J. Thomas Hines Chief, Branch 2 Office of Associate Chief Counsel (Passthroughs & Special Industries)
