Circular A, Agricultural Employer's Tax Guide

Advance Earned Income Credit

Eligible employees may be able to receive a part of their earned income credit in advance with their pay. This publication contains the tables you need to figure the advance earned income credit. See section 9 for more information.

Wage Bases for Social Security and Medicare Taxes

For 1993, the wage base for social security is $$ 57,600$. The wage base for Medicare is $$ 135,000$. For social security, the tax rate is $6.2 \%$ each for employers and employees. For Medicare, the rate is $1.45 \%$ each for employers and employees. Be sure to use the social security table that begins on page 38 AND the Medicare table on page 40.

Agricultural workers whose cash wages are subject to social security tax are required to have income tax withheld on their cash wages. See sections 3 through 5 for more details. Income tax withholding tables for 1993 begin on page 16 of this publication.

1993 Form W-2

The 1993 Form W-2 has been revised extensively. Please see the 1993 Form W-2 and its instructions for details.

New Deposit Rules

Effective J anuary 1, 1993, deposit rules have changed. See section 8.

Calendar

The following is a list of important dates. Also see Pub. 509, Tax Calendars for 1993.

Note: For any due date, you will meet the "file" or "furnish" requirement if the form is properly addressed, mailed, and postmarked on or before the due date. If any date shown falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, use the next business day.

By J anuary 31.-File Form 943,

 Employer's Annual Tax Return for Agricultural Employees, with the Internal Revenue Service and pay or deposit the taxes reported on it. (See section 8.) Furnish each employee a completed Form W-2. (See section 12.) Also file Form 940 or Form 940-EZ, Employer's Annual Federal Unemployment (FUTA) Tax Return. (See section 14.) But if you deposited all the FUTA tax when due, you may file Form 940 or 940-EZ on or before February 10.By February 15.—Ask for a new Form $\mathbf{W}-4$, Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate, from each employee who claimed total exemption from withholding during the prior year.
On February 16.-Begin withholding for each employee who previously claimed exemption from withholding but has not given you a new Form W-4 for the current year. If the employee does not give you a new Form W-4, withhold tax as if he or she is single, with zero withholding allowances. The Form W-4 previously given you claiming exemption is now expired. (See section 4.)
By the last day of February.-Send Copy A of all Forms W-2 and the original copy of Form W-3, Transmittal of Income and Tax Statements, or your magnetic media wage report to the Social Security Administration Data Operations Center serving your state. (See sections 12 and 13.)
Note: If you have employees in American Samoa, Guam, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, the Virgin Islands, or Puerto Rico who are subject to local income tax and U.S. social security tax, you must file the appropriate wage and tax statements and transmittals for those employees (Forms W-2AS, W-2GU, W-2CM, or W-2VI with Form W-3SS, and Form 499R-2/W-2PR with Form W-3PR). These forms are available at local tax departments in each jurisdiction.
Before December 1.-Ask for a new Form W-4 from each employee whose withholding allowances will change for the next year.
On December 31.-Form W-5, Earned Income Credit Advance Payment Certificate, expires. Employees who want to continue receiving advance payments of the earned income credit for the next year must give you a new Form W-5.

Reminders

Social security and Medicare taxes.-
Withhold $6.2 \%$ from each wage payment in 1993 for social security. Stop when you reach $$ 57,600$ in wages. Withhold $1.45 \%$ from each wage payment in 1993 for Medicare. Stop when you reach $$ 135,000$ in wages.
Withhold the proper amount of income tax. To determine when you are required to deposit the taxes, see section 8.
Change of address.-To notify the IRS that you changed your business mailing address or business location, send Form 8822, Change of Address, to the IRS.
Unresolved problems.-If you have a tax problem you have been unable to resolve with the IRS, write to your IRS District Director or call the toll-free telephone number for your area and ask for Problem Resolution assistance. This office will take responsibility for your problem and ensure that it receives proper attention. Although this office cannot change the tax law or technical decisions, it can frequently clear up misunderstandings that resulted from previous contacts.

Hearing-impaired taxpayers with access to TDD equipment may call 1-800-829-4059 for Problem Resolution assistance.
When you hire a new employee.-Ask each new employee to complete the 1993 Form W-4. Also, ask the employee to show you his or her social security card so you can record the employee's name and social security number accurately. If the employee has lost the card or recently changed names, have the employee apply for a new card. If the employee does not have a card, have the employee apply for one on Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card. (See section 7.)
Eligibility for employment.-You must verify that each new employee is legally eligible to work in the United States. This will include completing the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) Form I-9, Employment Eligibility Verification Form. The form can be obtained from INS offices. Contact the INS for further information concerning your responsibilities.
When you become aware of a change in an employee's name.-Continue to report the employee's wages under the old name until he or she shows you an updated social security card with the new name on it.
When a crew leader furnishes workers to you.-Record the crew leader's name, address, and employer identification number. (See sections 1 and 15.)

Introduction

This publication is for employers of agricultural workers (farmworkers). It contains information you may need to comply with the laws for agricultural labor (farmwork) relating to social security and Medicare taxes, Federal unemployment (FUTA) tax, and withheld income tax.

Information Returns

You must file Forms W-2 for employees you paid $$ 150$ or more in cash wages for the year and for employees you paid less than $$ 150$ in some instances. See section
3. You also may have to file information returns to report certain types of payments made during the year. For example, you must file Form 1099-MISC, Miscellaneous Income, to report payments of $$ 600$ or more to persons not treated as employees (e.g., independent contractors) for services performed for your trade or business. For details about Forms 1099 and for information about required magnetic media filing, see the separate Instructions for Forms 1099, 1098, 5498, and W-2G. Do not use the Forms 1099 to report wages and other compensation you paid to employees; report these on Form W-2. See the separate Instructions for Form W-2 for details.

Information Return Penalties

A penalty may be imposed if you fail to file (on paper or on magnetic media) an information return (including Forms W-2 and 1099) or you file with incorrect information.

The amount of the penalty is based on when the correct information returns are filed. The penalty is:

- $$ 15$ for each information return if you correctly file within 30 days after the due date (by March 30 if the due date is February 28) with a maximum penalty of $$ 75,000$ per year ( $$ 25,000$ for small businesses, defined below).
- $$ 30$ for each information return if you correctly file more than 30 days after the due date but by August 1, with a maximum penalty of $$ 150,000$ per year ( $$ 50,000$ for small businesses).
- $$ 50$ for each information return if you correctly file after August 1 or you do not file at all, with a maximum penalty of $$ 250,000$ per year ( $$ 100,000$ for small businesses).
- At least $$ 100$ for each information return if your failure is due to intentional disregard of the filing requirements with no maximum penalty.
Exceptions to the penalty. - In general, the penalty will not apply to any failure that was due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

In addition, the penalty will not apply to a de minimis number of failures. These failures are information returns that were filed but with incomplete or incorrect information and were corrected by August 1. The penalty will not apply to the greater of 10 information returns or $1 / 2$ of $1 \%$ of the total number of information returns you were required to file for the year.
Definition of small business.-A small business is a firm with average annual gross receipts of $$ 5$ million or less for the 3 most recent tax years.
Failure to provide payee statement or providing incorrect payee statement.-A penalty may be imposed if you either fail to furnish a payee statement by the due date or fail to include all correct information on a payee statement. This provision also applies to Form W-2. The penalty is $$ 50$ for each failure. The maximum penalty for such failures is $$ 100,000$ per year.

Social Security and Medicare for Farmworkers

Most persons employed or self-employed in farmwork are covered by social security and Medicare. When they reach age 65 or when they become disabled at any age, workers and their dependents may be eligible for monthly benefits (reduced benefits are payable as early as age 62). If a worker dies, the worker's family may be eligible for survivors insurance benefits. In addition to cash benefits, health insurance benefits are available for some workers whether or not they are retired. The Social Security Administration (SSA) makes these payments. For more information about these benefits, please contact any SSA office.

1. Who Are Employers of Farmworkers?

In general, you are an employer of farmworkers if your employees:

- raise or harvest agricultural or horticultural products on a farm;
- care for your farm and equipment, when most of the care is done on a farm;
- handle, process, or package any agricultural or horticultural commodity if you produced over half of the commodity; - do work related to cotton ginning, turpentine, or gum resin products; or - do housework in your private home if it is on a farm that is operated for profit.

Crew Leaders

You are an employer of farmworkers if you are a crew leader. A crew leader is a person who furnishes and pays (either on his or her own behalf or on behalf of the farm operator) workers to do farmwork for the farm operator. If there is no written agreement between you and the farm operator stating that you are his or her employee and if you pay the workers (either for yourself or for the farm operator), then you are a crew leader.

2. Wages That Are Subject to Social Security and Medicare Taxes, and Income Tax Withholding

Only cash wages you pay to employees for farmwork are subject to social security and Medicare taxes, and income tax withholding. Cash wages include checks, money orders, etc. Do not count the value of food, lodging, and other noncash items.

The maximum amount of cash wages subject to Medicare tax for 1993 is $$ 135,000$ and the maximum amount subject to social security tax is $$ 57,600$. There is no maximum amount of cash wages subject to income tax withholding.

The taxes do not apply to cash wages for housework in your private home if it was done by your spouse, or your son or daughter under age 21. Nor do the taxes apply to housework done by your mother or father unless:

- You have a son or daughter who is under age 18 or has a physical or mental condition that requires care by an adult for at least 4 continuous weeks in a calendar quarter (a calendar quarter is a 3 -month period ending March 31 , J une 30, September 30, or December 31) and who lives in your home; and
- You are a widow or widower, or divorced and not remarried, or have a spouse in the home who, because of a physical or mental condition, cannot care for your son or daughter for at least 4 continuous weeks in the quarter.

The taxes also do not apply to wages paid to share farmers or to alien workers lawfully admitted under section 101(a)(15)(H)(ii)(a) of the Immigration and Nationality Act on a temporary basis to perform agricultural labor ("H-2(A) workers").
In reporting taxable wages on Form 943, show the full amount before tax was deducted. For example, if an employee's cash wages were $$ 200$ and you deducted $$ 15.30$ as employee tax in 1992 ($12.40 of social security tax and $$ 2.90$ of Medicare tax), you would include $$ 200$ cash wages on line 2 and $$ 200$ cash wages on line 4, Form 943.

3. How To Determine if Social Security and

 Medicare Taxes Are Due and if the Wages Are Subject to Income Tax WithholdingThe $$ 150$ a Worker Test or the $$ 2,500$ a Year TestSocial security taxes, Medicare taxes, and income tax withholding apply to all cash wages you paid during the year to an employee for farmwork if either of the two tests below are met:

- You pay cash wages to an employee of $$ 150$ or more in a year (count all cash wages paid on a time, piecework, or other basis) for farmwork. The $$ 150$ test applies separately to each farmworker you employ. If you employ a family of workers, each member is treated separately. Do not count wages paid by other employers.
- You pay $$ 2,500$ or more during the year to all your employees for agricultural labor.

Exception: Wages you pay to a farmworker who receives less than $$ 150$ in annual cash wages are not subject to social security taxes, Medicare taxes, nor income tax withholding, even if you pay $$ 2,500$ or more in that year to all your farmworkers, if the farmworker:

1. Is employed in agriculture as a hand harvest laborer,
2. Is paid piece rates in an operation that is usually paid on a piece-rate basis in the region of employment,
3. Commutes daily from his or her home to the farm, and
4. Had been employed in agriculture less than 13 weeks in the preceding calendar year.
The amounts you pay to these seasonal farmworkers, however, count toward the $$ 2,500$-or-more test for determining the social security and Medicare coverage of other farmworkers.
Social security and Medicare taxes apply to most payments of sick pay, including payments made by third parties such as insurance companies. For details, get Pub. 952, Sick Pay Reporting.

4. Withholding From Employees

Form W-4.-To know how much income tax to withhold from employees' wages, you should have a Form W-4 on file for each employee. Ask all new employees to give you a signed Form W-4 when they start work. Make the form effective with the first wage payment. If a new employee does not give you a completed Form W-4, withhold tax as if he or she is single, with no withholding allowances. A Form W-4 remains in effect until the employee gives you a new one. If an employee gives you a Form W-4 that replaces an existing Form W-4, begin withholding no later than the start of the first payroll period ending on or after the 30th day from the date you received the replacement Form W-4. For exceptions, see the discussion on page 4 on invalid Forms $\mathrm{W}-4$, Forms $\mathrm{W}-4$ that must be sent to the IRS, and exemption from income tax withholding.
Note: A Form W-4 that makes a change for the next calendar year will not take effect in the current calendar year.
Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax, contains detailed instructions for completing Form W-4. Along with Form W-4, you may wish to order Pub. 505 and Pub. 919, Is My Withholding Correct for 1993?, for your employees.
Withholding.-To determine income tax withholding, take the following into account:

a. Wages paid.

b. Marital status.-The withholding tables are different for single and for married employees. On Form W-4, a married employee may choose to have withholding at the higher single rate. A nonresident alien, or a person married to one, is considered single for withholding tax purposes.
An employee whose spouse has died during the year can show status as Married for the year on Form W-4. An employee whose spouse died in either of the two preceding tax years can claim Married status if:

1. The employee's home is maintained as the main household of a child or stepchild for whom the employee can claim an exemption; and
2. The employee could file a joint return with the decedent in the year of the spouse's death.

An employee who qualifies as a "head of household" is considered single for withholding purposes.
c. Withholding allowances.-The number of withholding allowances claimed on the Form W-4 may be different from the number of exemptions claimed on the employee's tax return. The process of determining the correct number of withholding allowances begins with the number of personal exemptions the employee expects to claim on his or her tax return. This number is then increased or decreased based on the employee's financial situation, as outlined on the Form W-4 worksheets.

Personal Allowances Worksheet.-Most employees will need to complete only the Personal Allowances Worksheet on page 1 of Form W-4. (See Pub. 501, Exemptions, Standard Deductions, and Filing Information, for information on who can be claimed as a dependent.) On this worksheet, employees may add to the number of the exemptions they expect to claim on their tax returns:

1. A special allowance, for withholding purposes only, if the employee has only one job and does not have a working spouse, or the employee's wages from a second job and the spouse's wages do not exceed $$ 1,000$.
2. An additional allowance if the employee expects to file the tax return using the head of household filing status. A description of the requirements for this filing status is provided in the Form W-4 instructions.
3. An additional allowance if the employee expects to claim a tax credit for child or dependent care expenses of at least $$ 1,500$.

Employees may claim fewer withholding allowances than they are entitled to claim. They may wish to claim fewer allowances to generate a larger tax refund or to offset other sources of taxable income that are not subject to adequate withholding.

Deductions and Adjustments Worksheet.-Employees who intend to itemize their deductions or claim adjustments to income on their tax returns may complete the Deductions and Adjustments Worksheet on page 2 of Form W-4. This worksheet will help them determine if they are entitled to additional withholding allowances. For information on figuring withholding allowances for tax credits, see Pub. 505.

Two-Earner/Two-J ob Worksheet.-Single employees with more than one job and combined earnings over $$ 30,000$, and married employees with a working spouse or more than one job and combined earnings over $$ 50,000$, may use the Two-Earner/Two-J ob Worksheet on page 2 of Form W-4. Such employees may have too little tax withheld based on the above worksheets and could be subject to underpayment penalties. This worksheet will help such employees decide if they need to reduce the number of withholding allowances or have additional specific dollar amounts withheld.
d. Exemption from income tax withholding for eligible persons.-An employee may claim to be exempt from income tax withholding because he or she had no income tax liability last year and expects none this year. However, the wages may still be subject to social security and Medicare taxes.
An employee must file a Form W-4 each year by February 15 to claim exemption from withholding. Employers should begin withholding for each employee who previously claimed exemption from withholding but who has not submitted a new Form W-4 for the current year. Withhold tax as if the employee is single with zero withholding allowances.
An employee who can be claimed as a dependent on someone else's tax return may not be exempt. If that employee has any nonwage income such as interest on savings, and wages plus the nonwage income are expected to be more than $$ 600$ for 1993, he or she usually cannot claim exemption from withholding.
Caution: Students are subject to withholding the same as any other employee. They are not exempt because of "student" status.

Withholding on nonresident aliens.-

Employers should remind nonresident aliens when completing Form W-4 that to avoid underwithholding of income taxes they should: (1) not claim exemption from income tax withholding; (2) request withholding as if they are single, regardless of their actual marital status; and (3) claim only one allowance. However, if the nonresident alien is a resident of Canada, Mexico, J apan, or Korea, he or she may claim one allowance for each dependent. In addition, nonresident aliens should request that their employer withhold an extra $$ 4$ per week to avoid being underwithheld. For more information, get
Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Corporations.
Sending certain Forms W-4 to the IRS.You must send to the IRS copies of certain Forms W-4 received during the quarter from employees still employed by you at the end of the quarter. Send copies when the employee (1) claims more than 10 withholding allowances, or (2) claims exemption from withholding and his or her wages would normally exceed $$ 200$ per week. You are not required to send any other Forms W-4 unless the IRS notifies you in writing to do so.
Send in each quarter copies of any Forms W-4 that meet either of the above conditions. Complete boxes 8 and 10 on any Forms W-4 you send in. You may use box 9 to identify the office responsible for processing the employee's payroll information. Also send copies of any written statements from employees in support of the claims made on Forms W-4. Do this even if the Forms W-4 are not in effect at the end of the quarter. You can send them to your Internal Revenue Service Center more often if you like. Include a cover letter giving your name, address, employer identification number, and the number of forms included. In certain cases, the IRS may notify you in writing that you must submit specified Forms W-4 more frequently to your district director.
Base withholding on the Forms W-4 that you send in unless the IRS notifies you in writing that you should do otherwise. If the IRS notifies you about a particular employee, base withholding on the number of withholding allowances shown in the IRS notice. You will get a copy of the notice to give to the employee. Also, the employee will get a similar notice directly from the IRS. If the employee later gives you a new Form W-4, follow it only if (1) exempt status is not claimed or (2) the number of withholding allowances is equal to or fewer than the number in the IRS notice. Otherwise, disregard it and do not submit it to the IRS. Continue to follow the IRS notice. If the employee prepares a new Form W-4 explaining any difference with the IRS notice, he or she may either submit it to the IRS or to you. If submitted to you, send the Form W-4 and explanation to the IRS office shown in the notice. Continue to withhold based on the notice until the IRS tells you to follow the new Form W-4.
Filing Form W-4 on magnetic media.Form W-4 information may be filed with the IRS on magnetic media. If you wish to file on magnetic media, you must submit Form 4419, Application for Filing Information Returns Magnetically/ Electronically, to request authorization. Get Pub. 1245, Specifications for Filing Form W-4, Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate, on Magnetic Tape, and 51/4and $31 / 2$ - Inch Magnetic Diskettes. To obtain additional information about magnetic media filing, call the IRS Martinsburg Computing Center at (304) 263-8700.
Note: Any Forms W-4 with employee supporting statements that you must submit to the IRS must be submitted on paper. They cannot be submitted on magnetic media.
Invalid Forms W-4.-Any unauthorized change or addition to Form W-4 makes it invalid. This includes taking out any language by which the employee certifies that the form is correct. A Form W-4 is also invalid if, by the date an employee gives it to you, he or she indicates in any way that it is false.

When you get an invalid Form W-4, do not use it to figure withholding. Tell the employee it is invalid and ask for another one. If the employee does not give you a valid one, withhold taxes as if the employee were single and claiming no withholding allowances. However, if you have an earlier Form W-4 for this worker that is valid, withhold as you did before.

Amounts exempt from levy on wages,

 salary, and other income.-If you receive a Notice of Levy on Wages, Salary, and Other Income (Form 668 W or 668 W (c)), you must withhold amounts as described in the instructions for these forms. Pub. 1494, Table for Figuring Amount Exempt from Levy on Wages, Salary, and OtherIncome (Forms 668W and 668W(c)), shows the exempt amount. If a levy issued in a prior year is still in effect, use the current year Pub. 1494 to compute the exempt amount.

5. Figuring Withholding

There are several ways to figure income tax withholding:

- Percentage method (see pages 16-17).
- Wage bracket tables (see pages 18-37).

Also see page 13 for directions on how to use the tables for employees claiming more than 10 allowances.

- Alternative formula tables for percentage withholding (get Pub. 493, Alternative Tax Withholding Methods and Tables).
- Wage bracket percentage method withholding tables (see Pub. 493).

Employers with automated payroll systems will find the two alternative formula tables and the two alternative wage bracket percentage method tables useful.

- Combined income, employee social security, and employee Medicare tax table (see Pub. 493).
- Annualized wages method (see Pub. 493).
- Average estimated wages method (see Pub. 493).
- Cumulative wages and part-year employment methods (see Pub. 493).
These may be used if your employee requests that you use them, and you agree to this.
- Other alternative methods (see page 14).

If an employee wants additional tax withheld, have the employee show the extra amount on Form W-4.

Social security and Medicare taxes:

 employer's and employee's share.-For wages paid in 1993, the social security tax rate is $6.2 \%$ and the Medicare tax rate is $1.45 \%$ for both the employer and the employee. You can multiply each wage payment by these percentages or use the tables on pages 38 through 40 . You can use the amounts in the boxes in the lower right corners of the tables on pages 39 and 40 if the wage payment is $$ 100$ or more. For example, the social security tax on a wage payment of $$ 355$ would be $$ 22.01($ 18.60+$ 3.41)$ each. The Medicare tax would be $$ 5.15$ ( $$ 4.35+$ $$ .80)$ each.If you would rather pay the employee's share of the social security and Medicare tax without deducting it from his or her wages, you may do so. If you do not deduct the tax, you must still pay it. Any employee social security and Medicare tax you pay is additional income to the employee. (Include it in the employee's Form W-2, box 10, but do not count it for social security and Medicare wages, boxes 12 and 14. Nor is it counted for Federal unemployment tax purposes.)

6. Employer Identification Number

If you are required to report withheld income tax or social security and Medicare taxes, you must have an employer identification number (EIN)-a nine-digit number separated as follows: 00-0000000.

If you do not have an EIN, apply for one on Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, available at any IRS or SSA office.
If you do not have a number by the time a return is due, write "Applied for" and the date you applied in the space shown for the number. If you do not have a number by the time a tax deposit is due, send your payment to the Internal Revenue Service Center where you file your returns. Make it payable to the Internal Revenue Service and show on it your name (as shown on Form SS-4), address, kind of tax, period covered, and date you applied for an EIN.

You should have only one EIN. If you have more than one, notify the Internal Revenue Service Center where you file your return. State the numbers you have, the name and address to which each number was assigned, and the address of your principal place of business. The IRS will tell you which number to use.
For more information about EINs, get Pub. 583, Taxpayers Starting a Business.

7. Employee's Social Security Number (SSN)

You must obtain each employee's name and SSN because you must enter them on Form W-2. If you do not provide the correct name and SSN, you may owe a penalty. If your employee does not have a number, record the employee's full name and address, and have the employee apply for an SSN on Form SS-5, available at any SSA office or call 1-800-772-1213. If your employee has applied for an SSN but does not have one when you file Form W-2, enter "Applied For" on the form. When the employee receives the SSN, file Form W-2c to show the employee's SSN.

The SSA keeps a lifetime record of the amount of wages paid to each employee, identified by the employee's name and SSN. This is necessary to prevent mixups between workers with the same or similar names. An employee's SSN consists of nine digits separated as follows: 000-00-0000.
When you hire an employee to whom you expect to pay taxable wages during the year for farmwork, record your employee's name and SSN exactly as they appear on the employee's social security card. If your employee was given a new social security card to show his or her correct name and number after an adjustment to his or her alien residence status, correct your records for 1993 and show the new information on the 1993 Form W-2. If you filed Form W-2 for the same employee in prior years under the old name and SSN, file Form W-2c, Statement of Corrected Income and Tax Amounts, to correct the name and number. Advise the employee to contact the local SSA office about 6 months after the Form $\mathrm{W}-2 \mathrm{c}$ is filed to ensure that his or her records have been updated.

8. Payments of Taxes and Deposit Requirements

Generally, you must make payments of employer and employee social security taxes, Medicare taxes, and withheld income tax of $$ 500$ or more during the year by depositing the tax with an authorized financial institution or a Federal Reserve bank. How often you are required to make deposits depends on the amount of taxes (minus advance EIC payments, if any) as explained in the deposit rules below.
Note: If you employ both farm and nonfarm workers, DO NOT combine the taxes reportable on Form 941, Employer's Quarterly Federal Tax Return, and Form 943 to decide whether to make a deposit.
See Employers of Both Farm and Nonfarm Workers at the end of this section.

Deposit Rules

When To Deposit

New rules for determining when you must deposit Federal employment taxes (other than FUTA taxes) are effective J anuary 1 , 1993. However, you may continue to use the old deposit rules for 1993 only; see Circular A (Rev. February 1992) and Pub. 225, Farmer's Tax Guide, for the old deposit rules. You can get Pub. 225 from IRS offices. The new deposit rules apply to backup withholding; Federal income tax withheld on wages, pensions and annuities, and gambling winnings; and social security and Medicare taxes. Generally, these rules do not apply to taxes required to be reported on Form 942.

New Deposit Rules

Under the new rules, you are either (1) a monthly depositor or (2) a semiweekly depositor. However, if you accumulate taxes of $$ 100,000$ or more at any time during the year, you are subject to the $$ 100,000$ one-day deposit rule, discussed later. The IRS will notify you each November whether you are a monthly or a semiweekly depositor for the coming calendar year. If you do not receive the notification, you must determine your own deposit status. You determine your status as a monthly or semiweekly depositor at the beginning of the calendar year based on the total tax you reported on your original Form 943 in the lookback period (explained below).
Lookback Period.-The lookback period is the second calendar year preceding the current calendar year. For example, the lookback period for the calendar year 1993 is the calendar year 1991.
Adjustments to lookback period taxes.To determine your taxes for the lookback period, use only the tax you reported on the original return (Form 943). Do not include adjustments made on a supplemental return filed after the due date of the return. However, if you make adjustments on Form 943, the adjustments are included in the total tax for the period in which the adjustments are reported.
Example of adjustments.-Employer S originally reported total taxes of $45,000 for the lookback period in 1991. S discovered during J anuary 1993 that the tax during the lookback period was understated by $$ 10,000$ and corrected this error with an adjustment on the 1993 Form 943. The total taxes reported in the lookback period is $$ 45,000$. The $$ 10,000$ adjustment is treated as part of the 1993 taxes.
Monthly Depositor Rule.-If the total tax reported on Form 943 for the lookback period is $$ 50,000$ or less, you are a monthly depositor for the current year. You must deposit employment taxes and taxes withheld on payments made during a calendar month by the 15th day of the following month.

New employers.-If you are a new employer, your taxes for the lookback period are considered to be zero.
Therefore, you are a monthly depositor for the year in which you first became an employer (but see the $\mathbf{$ 1 0 0 , 0 0 0}$ One-Day Deposit Rule exception later).
Semiweekly Depositor Rule.-If the total tax reported on Form 943 for the lookback period is more than $$ 50,000$, you are a semiweekly depositor for the current year. If you are a semiweekly depositor, you must deposit on Wednesday and/or Friday depending on what day of the week you make payments as shown below:

Payment Days/Deposit  Periods

Deposit By Wednesday, Thursday, and/or Friday
y .

Saturday, Sunday,
Monday, and/or Tuesday
Following Wednesday

If a retum period ends on a day other than Tuesday or Friday, taxes accumulated on the days in the return period just ending are subject to one deposit obligation, and taxes accumulated on the days in the next return period are subject to a separate deposit obligation. For example, if one return period ends on Thursday and a new return period begins on Friday, taxes accumulated on Wednesday and Thursday are subject to one deposit obligation and taxes accumulated on Friday are subject to a separate obligation. Separate FTD coupons (Form 8109) are required for each deposit because two different return periods are affected. Be sure to clearly mark the return period for which the deposit is made on each Form 8109.

Example of Monthly and Semiweekly

Rules.-Employer A accumulated taxes on Form 943 as follows:

Calendar year 1991 - $$ 48,000$
Calendar year 1992 - $60,000
Employer A is a monthly depositor for 1993 because its taxes for the lookback period ( $$ 48,000$ for calendar year 1991) were not more than $$ 50,000$. However, for 1994, Employer A is a semiweekly depositor because A's total taxes for its lookback period ( $$ 60,000$ for calendar year 1992) exceeded $$ 50,000$.

Deposits on Banking Days Only.-If a deposit is required to be made on a day that is not a banking day, the deposit is considered to be made timely if it is made by the close of the next banking day. For example, if a deposit is required to be made on Friday, but Friday is not a banking day, the deposit is considered timely if it is made by the following Monday.

Semiweekly depositors will always have 3 banking days after the end of a semiweekly period to make a deposit. That is, if any of the 3 weekdays after the end of a semiweekly period is a banking holiday, you will have one additional banking day to deposit. For example, if a semiweekly depositor accumulated taxes for payments made on Friday and the following Monday is not a banking day, the deposit normally due on Wednesday may be made on Thursday (allowing 3 banking days to make the deposit).
$\mathbf{$ 1 0 0 , 0 0 0}$ One-Day Deposit Rule.-If you accumulate taxes of $$ 100,000$ or more on any day during a deposit period, you must deposit it by the close of the next banking day, whether you are a monthly or a semiweekly depositor. For monthly depositors, the deposit period is a calendar month. For semiweekly depositors, the deposit periods are Wednesday through Friday and Saturday through Tuesday.
For purposes of the $$ 100,000$ rule, do not continue accumulating taxes after the end of a deposit period. For example, if a semiweekly depositor has accumulated taxes of $$ 95,000$ on Tuesday and $$ 10,000$ on Wednesday, the $$ 100,000$ one-day rule does not apply because the $$ 10,000$ is accumulated in the next deposit period. Thus, $$ 95,000$ must be deposited on Friday and $$ 10,000$ must be deposited on the following Wednesday.

In addition, once you accumulate at least $$ 100,000$ in a deposit period, stop accumulating at the end of that day and begin to accumulate anew on the next day. For example, Employer C is a semiweekly depositor. On Monday, C accumulates taxes of $$ 110,000$ and must deposit on Tuesday, the next banking day. On Tuesday, C accumulates additional taxes of $$ 30,000$. Because the $$ 30,000$ is not added to the previous $$ 110,000$ and is less than $$ 100,000$, C must deposit the $$ 30,000$ on Friday using the normal semiweekly deposit rule.
If you are a monthly depositor and you accumulate $$ 100,000$ on any day, you immediately become a semiweekly depositor for the remainder of the calendar year and for the following calendar year.

Example of $$ 100,000$ one-day deposit rule.-Employer B started business on February 1, 1993. Because $B$ is a new employer, the taxes for its lookback period are considered to be zero; therefore, B is a monthly depositor. On February 10, B paid wages for the first time and accumulated taxes of $$ 60,000$. On February 11, B paid wages and accumulated taxes of $$ 50,000$, for a total of $$ 110,000$. Because B accumulated $$ 110,000$ on February 11, it must deposit $$ 110,000$ by February 12, the next banking day. B immediately is a semiweekly depositor for at least the remainder of 1993 and for 1994 but may be subject to the $$ 100,000$ one-day deposit rule if it accumulates $$ 100,000$ again in any semiweekly period.
Accuracy of Deposits (98\% Rule).-You will satisfy your deposit obligation if you deposit timely $98 \%$ of the required deposit or all but $$ 100$ of the required deposit. For this rule to apply, you must deposit any underpayment as follows:

- Monthly Depositor-Deposit or remit by the due date of the Form 943 for the period in which the underpayment occurred.
- Semiweekly and $100,000 One-Day Depositor-Deposit by the earlier of the first Wednesday or Friday that comes on or after the 15th of the month following the month in which the underpayment occurred.
You will not be subject to a penalty if your underdeposit was due to reasonable cause.
$500 Exception.-If you accumulate less than a $$ 500$ tax liability during a year, no deposits are required. You may pay with the tax return for the year. However, if you are unsure that you will accumulate less than $$ 500$ for the year, deposit under the appropriate rules so that you will not be subject to failure to deposit penalties.

Depositing Taxes

Federal Tax Deposit (FTD) Coupon.-Use Form 8109, Federal Tax Deposit Coupon, to deposit employment taxes and all other types of taxes that are deposited. Do not use Form 8109 to pay delinquent or additional taxes assessed by the IRS. Pay these taxes directly to the IRS Service Center and include a copy of any related bills or notices the IRS sent you.
The IRS will send you an FTD coupon book 5 to 6 weeks after you receive an EIN. (Apply for an EIN on Form SS-4.) The FTD coupons will be preprinted with your name, address, and EIN. The IRS will keep track of the number of FTD coupons you use and automatically will send you additional FTD coupons when you need them. If you do not receive your resupply of FTD coupons, contact your local IRS office. You can have the FTD coupon books sent to a branch office, tax preparer, or service bureau that is making your deposits by showing that address on Form 8109C, FTD Address Change, which is in the FTD coupon book. (Using Form 8109C will not change your address of record; it will change only the address where the FTD coupons are mailed.)
Include an FTD coupon with each deposit you make. Clearly mark the correct TYPE OF TAX and TAX PERIOD on the FTD coupon since this is used to credit the deposit to your tax account.

If you have branch offices depositing taxes, give them FTD coupons and complete instructions so they can deposit the taxes when due.

Please use only your FTD coupons. If you use anyone else's FTD coupon, you may be subject to the failure to deposit penalty. This is because your account will be underpaid by the amount of the deposit credited to the other person's account. See Penalties below for details.
Making Deposits.-Mail or deliver the completed FTD coupon, along with a single payment, to a financial institution qualified as a depositary for Federal taxes or to the Federal Tax Department of the Federal Reserve bank or branch (FRB) that serves your area. Follow the instructions in the FTD coupon book. Make your check or money order payable to the depositary or FRB where you deposit the taxes. To help ensure proper crediting of your account, include your EIN, the type of tax (e.g., Form 943), and the tax period to which the payment applies on your check or money order.
Depositing Without an EIN.-If you have applied for an EIN but have not received it, and you must make a deposit, make the deposit with your Internal Revenue Service Center. Do not make the deposit at an authorized depositary or FRB. Make it payable to the Internal Revenue Service and show on it your name (as shown on Form SS-4), address, kind of tax, period covered, and date you applied for an EIN. Attach an explanation to the deposit. Do not use Form 8109-B in this situation.
Depositing Without Form 8109.-If you do not have the preprinted Form 8109, you may use Form 8109-B to make deposits. Form 8109-B is an over-the-counter FTD coupon that is not preprinted with your identifying information. It is available at IRS offices. Use Form 8109-B to make deposits only if:

- You are a new entity and you already have been assigned an EIN, but you have not received your initial supply of Forms 8109; or
- You have not received your resupply of preprinted Forms 8109.

You can get this over-the-counter deposit coupon at most IRS offices. When you use Form 8109-B, be sure your EIN, name and address, type of tax (i.e., 943), tax period for which you are depositing, and the month your tax year ends are on the form. Use Form 8109-B to make deposits with an authorized depositary or FRB only.
Deposit Record.-For your records, a stub is provided with each FTD coupon in the coupon book. The FTD coupon itself will not be returned. It is used to credit your account. Your check, bank receipt, or money order is your receipt.

How To Claim Credit for

Overpayments.-If you deposited more than the right amount of taxes, on the tax return you file, you can ask to have the overpayment refunded or applied as a credit to your next return. Do not ask the depositary or the FRB to request a refund from the IRS for you.

Deposits at Authorized Financial

 Institutions.-Authorized depositaries must accept cash, a postal money order drawn to the order of the depositary, or a check or draft drawn on and made payable to the depositary. You can deposit taxes with a check drawn on another depositary only if the depositary is willing to accept that form of payment.Note: Deposits made at an unauthorized financial institution may be subject to the failure to deposit penalty.
Deposits at FRBs.-If you want to make a deposit at an FRB, you must make that deposit with the FRB serving your area. Deposits may be subject to the failure to deposit penalty if the payment is not considered an immediate credit item on the day it is received by the FRB. A personal check, including one drawn on a business account, is not an immediate credit item. To avoid a penalty, deposits made by personal checks drawn on other financial institutions must be made in advance of the deposit due date to allow time for check clearance. To be considered timely, the funds must be available to the FRB on the deposit due date before the FRB's daily cut-off deadline. Contact your local FRB to obtain information concerning check clearance and cut-off schedules.
Timeliness of Deposits.-The IRS determines whether deposits are on time by the date they are received by an authorized depositary or FRB. However, a deposit received by the authorized depositary or FRB after the due date will be considered timely if the taxpayer establishes that it was mailed in the United States at least 2 days before the due date.
Note: If you are required to deposit any taxes more than once a month, any deposit of $$ 20,000$ or more must be made by its due date to be timely.
Penalties.-P enalties may apply if you do not make required deposits on time, you make deposits at an unauthorized financial institution, you pay directly to the IRS, or you pay with your return (amounts that may be paid with a return are limited). The penalties do not apply if any failure to make a proper and timely deposit was due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect. For amounts not properly or timely deposited, the penalty rates are:

- $2 \%$-deposits made 1 to 5 days late
- $5 \%$-deposits made 6 to 15 days late
- $10 \%$-deposits made 16 or more days late. This also applies to amounts paid to the IRS within 10 days of the date of the first notice the IRS sent you asking for the tax due
- $10 \%$-deposits made at unauthorized financial institutions or directly to the IRS (but see Depositing Without an EIN above)
- $15 \%$-amounts still unpaid more than 10 days after the date of the first notice the IRS sent you asking for the tax due or the day on which you receive notice and demand for immediate payment, whichever is earlier.

100\% Penalty.-If income, social security, and Medicare taxes that must be withheld are not withheld or are not paid to the IRS, the $100 \%$ penalty may apply. The penalty is $100 \%$ of such unpaid taxes. This penalty may apply to you if these unpaid taxes cannot be immediately collected from the employer or business.
The $100 \%$ penalty may be imposed on all persons who are determined by the IRS to be responsible for collecting, accounting for, and paying over these taxes, and who acted willfully in not doing so.
A responsible person can be an officer or employee of a corporation, a partner or employee of a partnership, an accountant, a volunteer director/trustee, or an employee of a sole proprietorship. A responsible person also may include one who signs checks for the business or otherwise has authority to cause the spending of business funds.
Willfully means voluntarily, consciously, and intentionally. A responsible person acts willfully if the person knows the required actions are not taking place.
Order in Which Deposits Are Applied.Tax deposits are applied first to satisfy any past due underdeposits, with the oldest underdeposit satisfied first.
Example: Employer A is required to make a deposit of $$ 1,000$ on February 15 and $$ 1,500$ on March 15 . A does not make the deposit on February 15. On March 15, A deposits $$ 1,700$ assuming that he has paid his March deposit in full and applied $$ 200$ to the late February deposit. However, because deposits are applied first to past due underdeposits in due date order, $$ 1,000$ of the March 15 deposit is applied to the late February deposit. The remaining $$ 700$ is applied to the March 15 deposit. Therefore, in addition to an underdeposit of $$ 1,000$ for February 15, A has an underdeposit for March 15 of $$ 800$. Penalties will be applied to both underdeposits as explained above.

Employers of Both Farm and Nonfarm Workers

If you employ farmworkers whose wages are reported on Form 943 and nonfarmworkers whose wages are reported on Form 941, you must treat employment taxes reportable on Form 943 (Form 943 taxes) separately from employment taxes reportable on Form 941 (Form 941 taxes). Form 943 taxes and Form 941 taxes are not combined for purposes of determining if (1) a deposit is due, (2) the $$ 100,000$ one-day rule applies, or (3) any safe harbor applies.
If a deposit is due, deposit the Form 941 taxes and the Form 943 taxes with separate FTD coupons. For example, if your tax liability at the end of April is $$ 800$ reportable on Form 941 and $$ 100$ reportable on Form 943, deposit both amounts by the 15th of May. Use one FTD coupon to deposit the $$ 800$ of Form 941 taxes and another FTD coupon to deposit the $$ 100$ of Form 943 taxes.

9. Advance Payment of the Earned Income Credit

The earned income credit (EIC) is a tax credit for certain workers who have a qualifying child who lives with them in the United States. The EIC is made up of the basic credit, extra credit for child born in 1993, and health insurance credit. Eligible employees can choose to claim all the credit on their tax returns or get up to $$ 1,434$ of the basic EIC with their pay during the year.

Advance Payment of the EIC

Payment of advance EIC is limited to the amount of the basic EIC an employee would receive if he or she has only one qualifying child. For 1993, this amount can be as much as $$ 1,434$.

Eligible employees (defined later) who want to get EIC payments during the year with their pay must give you a completed Form W-5, Earned Income Credit Advance Payment Certificate. You are required to make advance EIC payments to employees who give you Form W-5.
Eligible employees.-Only employees who expect to be eligible for the EIC in 1993 may receive advance EIC payments. Eligibility requirements are shown on Form W-5 and are summarized below:

1. The employee's expected 1993 earned income and adjusted gross income must each be less than $$ 23,050$.
2. If married, the employee must not file as married filing separately. The employee must file a joint return or qualify to file as head of household.
3. The employee must not claim the foreign earned income or housing expense exclusion, or the foreign housing expense deduction.
4. The employee cannot be a qualifying child of another person.
5. The employee must have a qualifying child as defined in Notice 797, Possible Federal Tax Refund Due to the Earned Income Credit (EIC).
6. A married child generally must be claimed as a dependent by the employee. However, there are special rules that may apply if the child is the child of divorced or separated parents.
Form W-5.-On Form W-5, an employee states that he or she expects to be eligible for the EIC and shows whether he or she has a certificate in effect with any current employer. The employee also shows whether he or she is married, and, if married, whether his or her spouse has a certificate in effect with an employer.

An employee may have only one certificate in effect with a current employer at one time. If an employee is married and his or her spouse also works, each spouse should file a separate Form W-5.

Length of effective period.-Form W-5 remains in effect until the end of the calendar year unless the employee revokes the certificate or files another one. Eligible employees must file a new certificate each year.

Change of status.-If an employee gives you a signed Form W-5 and later becomes ineligible for the EIC, he or she must revoke the certificate within 10 days after learning about the change of circumstances. The employee must give you a new Form W-5 stating that he or she is no longer eligible for or no longer wants advance EIC payments.
If the employee's situation changes because his or her spouse files a Form W-5, the employee must file a new Form W-5 showing that his or her spouse has a certificate in effect with an employer. This will reduce the maximum amount of advance payments you can make to that employee.
If the employee's spouse has filed a Form W-5 that is no longer in effect, the employee may file a new Form W-5 with you, but is not required to do so. A new form will certify that the spouse does not have a certificate in effect and will increase the maximum amount of advance payments you can make to that employee.
Invalid certificate.-The Form W-5 is invalid if it is incomplete, unsigned, or has an alteration or unauthorized addition. The form has been altered if any of the language has been deleted. Any writing added to the form other than the requested entries is an unauthorized addition. You should consider a certificate invalid if an employee has made an oral or written statement that clearly shows the Form W-5 to be false.

If you receive an invalid certificate from an employee, tell the employee that the certificate is invalid as of the date the employee made the oral or written statement. For advance EIC payment purposes, the invalid certificate is considered void.

The employer is not required to determine if a completed and signed Form W-5 is correct. However, you should contact the IRS district director if you have reason to believe the certificate has any incorrect statement.

How to Figure the Advance EIC

Payment.-You must include advance EIC payments with wages you pay to eligible employees who give you a signed and completed Form W-5. Make the initial certificate effective for the first payroll period ending (or the first wage payment made without regard to a payroll period) on or after the date the employee gives you the form.
For purposes of the advance EIC payment, wages means amounts subject to income tax withholding. For employees who claim exemption from income tax withholding on Form W-4, wages means amounts that would have been subject to income tax withholding. For household employees, wages means amounts subject to social security and Medicare taxes.
To figure the amount of the advance EIC payment to include with the employee's pay, you must consider:

1. Wages, including reported tips, for the pay period.
2. Whether the employee is married or single.
3. Whether a married employee's spouse has a Form W-5 in effect with an employer.
Note: If during the year you have paid an employee total wages of at least $$ 23,050$, you must stop making advance EIC payments to that employee for the rest of the year.
Figure the amount of advance EIC to include in the employee's pay by using the tables that begin on page 41. There are separate tables for employees whose spouses have a certificate in effect. If an employee shows on Form W-5 that his or her spouse has filed a Form W-5 with an employer, use either the wage bracket or percentage method tables titled "MARRIED With Both Spouses Filing Certificate." Otherwise, use either the wage bracket or percentage method tables titled "SINGLE or MARRIED Without Spouse Filing Certificate." Be sure to use the correct table for your pay period (i.e., weekly, biweekly, monthly, daily, etc.).
Example 1: You pay Wanda Carter $140 a week. She has given you a Form W-5 that shows she is married and her husband has given his employer a Form W-5. You have decided to use the wage bracket method to figure your advance EIC payments. You turn to the wage bracket tables for a weekly payroll period, and look at the table "MARRIED With Both Spouses Filing Certificate." According to this table, you will include a $$ 10$ advance EIC payment with Wanda Carter's (net) pay for the week.
Paying the Advance EIC to Employees.An advance EIC payment is not wages and is not subject to withholding of income, social security, or Medicare taxes. An advance EIC payment does not change the amount of income, social security, or Medicare taxes you withhold from the employee's wages. You add the EIC payment to the employee's net pay for the pay period. At the end of the year, you show the total advance EIC payments in box 8 for "Advance EIC payment" of the Form W-2. Do not include this amount in the "Wages..." box.
Employer's returns.-Show the total payments you made to employees on the advance EIC line of your Form 943. Subtract this amount from your total taxes (see the specific instructions for Form 943).

Generally, employers will make the advance EIC payment from withheld income tax and employee and employer social security and Medicare taxes. These taxes are normally required to be paid over to the IRS either through Federal tax deposits or with employment tax returns. For purposes of deposit due dates, advance EIC payments are considered deposited on the day you pay wages (including the advance EIC payment) to your employees. The advance EIC payment reduces, in this order, the amount of income tax withholding, withheld employee social security and Medicare taxes, and the employer's share of social security and Medicare taxes.
Example 2: You have 10 employees, each entitled to an advance EIC payment of $$ 10$. The total advance payments you make for the payroll period is $$ 100$. The total income tax withholding for the payroll period is $$ 90$. The total employee and employer social security and Medicare taxes for the payroll period is $$ 122.60$ ($61.30 each).

You are considered to have made a deposit of $$ 100$ advance EIC payment on the day you paid wages, and you subtract this amount from your employment taxes for the payroll period. The $$ 100$ is treated as if you paid the IRS the $$ 90$ total income tax withholding and $$ 10$ of the employee social security and Medicare taxes. You remain liable only for $$ 112.60$ of the social security and Medicare taxes ($51.30 + $$ 61.30=$ 112.60$ ).

Advance EIC Payments More Than

Taxes Due.-If for any payroll period the total advance EIC payments are more than the total payroll taxes (withheld income tax and both employee and employer share of social security and Medicare taxes), you may choose either of the following options:

Option 1.-Reduce each employee's advance payment by an amount figured by multiplying the employee's advance payment by a fraction. The numerator is the excess advance amount and the denominator is the total advance EIC payments for the pay period. See Example 3 below.

Option 2.-Elect to make full payment of the advance EIC and treat the excess as an advance payment of employment taxes. The excess payment is applied first to income tax withholding, next to employee social security and Medicare taxes, and then to employer social security and Medicare taxes due for the reporting period in which the excess amount was paid.
Example 3: You have 10 employees who are each entitled to an advance EIC payment of $$ 10$. They are all student nurses whose wages are exempt from social security and Medicare taxes. The total amount of advance EIC payments for the payroll period is $$ 100$; the total income tax withholding is $$ 90$. The advance EIC amount is $$ 10$ more than the total income tax withholding.

Under Option 1, reduce the advance payment to each employee by $$ 1.00$, or $1 / 10$ of the excess payment, figured as follows:
$10 (excess advance amount)
$\frac{$ 100 \text { (total advance payments) }}{$ 1 / 10 \times $ 10=$ 1.00}$
Under Option 2, you choose to pay each employee the full advance EIC amount ( $$ 100$ total) and treat the excess advance payments ($10) as an advance payment of employment taxes. Show the full $$ 100$ as advance EIC on your employment tax return for the reporting period in which you made the payment.

If you elect to make full payment, you must include with your employment tax return a statement of the amount of the excess advance EIC payments and the payroll period to which the excess applies. You may make separate elections for separate pay periods. If the amount of employment taxes you owe on the return remains less than the amount of excess payment, you may claim a refund of the difference or have the credit applied to your next return.
Penalty.-You must make advance EIC payments to employees who correctly fill out Form W-5. If you do not, you are subject to a penalty equal to the amount of the advance EIC payments not made.

Required Notice to Employees

You are required to notify employees who have no income tax withheld that they may be eligible for a tax refund because of the EIC. Although you do not have to notify employees who claim exemption from withholding on Form W-4, Employee's Withholding Allowance Certificate, about the EIC, you are encouraged to notify any employees who may be eligible for the credit. This is because eligible employees may get a refund of the amount of EIC that is more than the tax they owe. For example, an employee who has no tax withheld in 1993 and owes no tax, but is eligible for a $$ 330$ EIC, can file a 1993 tax return to get a $$ 330$ refund.

You can notify your employees by giving them one of the following:

1. The IRS Form W-2 that has the required statement about the EIC on the back of Copy C.
2. A substitute Form W-2 with the same statement on the back of the employee copy that is on Copy C of the IRS Form W-2.
3. Notice 797, Possible Federal Tax Refund Due to the Earned Income Credit (EIC).
4. Your written statement with the exact wording as Notice 797.
If you use a substitute Form W-2 without the required statement, you must give your employees Notice 797 or your own written statement. If you are required to give Form W-2 and do so on time, you must give the notice at the same time or within 1 week of the date you give your employees Form $\mathrm{W}-2$. If Form $\mathrm{W}-2$ is required and you do not give it on time, you must notify your employees by the date you were required to give Form W-2. If you are not required to give Form W-2, you must notify your employees on or before February 8, 1993.
For more information about notification requirements, get Pub. 1325, EmployersRequired Notice to Certain Employees of a Possible Federal Tax Refund Due to the Earned Income Credit (EIC).

10. Requirements for Filing Form 943

You must file a Form 943 for each calendar year beginning with the first year you pay $$ 2,500$ or more for farmwork or you employ a farmworker who meets the $$ 150$ test explained in section 3. Do not report these wages on Form 941.
After you file your first return, each year we will send you a Form 943 preaddressed with your name, address, and EIN. If you do not receive the preaddressed form, request one from any IRS district office. If you use a blank form, show your name and EIN exactly as they appeared on previous returns.
Send Form 943, with payment of any taxes due that are not required to be deposited, to the IRS by J anuary 31 following the year for which the return is filed (or February 10 if the tax was timely deposited in full).
Penalties.-For each month or part of a month a return is not filed when required (disregarding any extensions of the filing deadline), there is a penalty of $5 \%$ of the amount that should have been shown on the return. The maximum penalty is $25 \%$. Also, for each month or part of a month the tax is paid late (disregarding any extensions of the payment deadline), there is a penalty of $0.5 \%$ per month of the amount shown as due. The maximum amount of this penalty cannot exceed $25 \%$. The penalties will not be charged if there is an acceptable reason for failing to file or pay. If you file or pay late, attach an explanation to your Form 943.
In cases where income, social security, and Medicare taxes to be withheld are not withheld or are not paid to the IRS, certain officers or employees of a corporation or certain members or employees of a partnership may become personally liable for the payment of these taxes and penalized an amount equal to the taxes. This is known as the "100\% penalty." (See page 7. )

11. Correcting Errors

Errors in Withholding Social Security and Medicare Taxes

If you withhold no tax or less than the correct amount, you may correct the mistake by withholding the tax from a later payment to the same employee.
If you withhold employee tax when no tax is due or if you withhold more than the correct amount, you should repay the employee.
If you are unable to repay an overcollection to the employee by the end of the year, you must pay it to the IRS in J anuary of the following year. Attach a separate statement that explains the overcollection and shows your employee's social security number, name, and the amount you overcollected and did not repay the employee. If you are required to file a Form 943 for the year, enter the amount of the overcollection as an addition on line 8 of the return and send the payment and statement with the return.

Other Errors in Reporting Social Security and Medicare Taxes

If, after filing a return, you find you made a mistake that resulted in your paying too much tax, you may file Form 843, Claim for Refund and Request for Abatement, for a refund of the overpayment or you may subtract the amount from the tax you report on your next return. If the mistake resulted in your not paying enough tax and an additional payment has not been requested, add the amount to the tax you report on your next tax return. You may report your mistakes (including decreases and increases in tax) on your next Form 943 by using line 8 of the return. Because any amount shown on line 8 increases or decreases your tax liability, the adjustment must be included on your record of Federal tax liability on Form 943 or 943A. Your deposit requirements determine which liability report is used. Include the adjustment in the report entry area that corresponds with the date on which the error was found. If you prefer, you may report the amount immediately on a separate return marked "Supplemental." In either case, attach an explanation of the mistake on a sheet of paper or Form 941c to the return.

DO NOT file Form 941c separately from Form 943. Form 941c is not an amended return, but is a statement providing necessary certification and background information supporting the adjustments on line 8 of Form 943.

If you incorrectly reported or left out wages on Form 943, show on a statement or on Form 941c the total wages for all your employees as previously reported and as corrected. Since Form W-2 is used by the SSA to post the employee's social security wages to his or her earnings record, you must give Form W-2c to the employee and send Copy A of Form W-2c to the SSA if a Form W-2 was issued showing any incorrect social security entry.

Forms W-2c, Statement of Corrected Income and Tax Amounts, and W-3c, Transmittal of Corrected Income and Tax Statements, must be used to correct errors in previously filed Forms W-2.
Note: For the purposes of filing a claim, a timely filed Form 943 is considered to be filed on April 15 of the year after the close of the tax year and a claim may be filed within 3 years from that date.

12. Wage Statements

You must furnish a Form W-2 to every employee to whom you paid any amount for services, including the cash value of any payment you made that was not in cash. If you employ a family of workers, you must prepare a Form W-2 for each family worker, not just the head of the household.

Furnish Form W-2 to each recipient of supplemental unemployment compensation benefits or third-party sick pay.

You must furnish a Form W-2 to any employee if the wages were also subject to social security and Medicare taxes. On Form W-2, you must show social security wages separately from Medicare wages, and you must show social security taxes separately from Medicare taxes.

By February 1, 1993, furnish Form W-2 to each employee who was working for you at the end of 1992. If an employee stops working for you before the end of the year, furnish him or her Form W-2 any time after employment ends but no later than February 1, 1993. However, if the employee asks you for Form W-2, furnish him or her the completed form within 30 days of the request or the last wage payment, whichever is later.

Furnish each employee from whom you withheld zero income tax (other than those who claimed exemption from withholding on Form W-4) a copy of Notice 797. See Pub. 1325 for information on when and how to furnish it. Both items are available from the IRS.

Keep any payee copies of Forms W-2 and $1099-R$ that you have tried to deliver without success for 4 years. You must make a reasonable effort to deliver these statements. An example would be mailing the statement to the recipient's last known address.

By March 1, 1993, send Copy A of all Forms 1099-R with Form 1096 to the Internal Revenue Service Center for your locality.

By March 1, 1993, send Copy A of all Forms W-2 issued for 1992 to the SSA. Send them with Form W-3 to the SSA Data Operations Center for your state as shown on Form W-3.

Copy A of Form W-2 has two forms on a page. If you make a mistake, put an $X$ in the Void square and use the next form. Since these forms are processed by machine, make no erasures, strikeovers, or whiteouts of entries. Send the whole page even if one form is blank or void.

If you have a very large number of forms, you may use several packages. Be sure to put your name on each package. Number the packages in order. Write the number of packages below the title of Form W-3 and put it in the first package. Use First-Class Mail to send the forms to the SSA.
If an employee loses or destroys his or her copies, furnish your employee copies of Form W-2 marked "Reissued Statement." Do not send Copy A of the reissued form to the SSA.

If a form is corrected before you file Copy A with the SSA, furnish the employee the corrected copies. Mark the original Copy A "Void" in the proper box and send the new Copy A to the SSA. Do not write "corrected" on the new Copy A.
How to get forms.-You can get Form W-2 from the IRS (see page 47). Private printers also produce them. You can use these substitute forms for filing returns with the SSA and for furnishing statements to employees if they comply with the requirements in Pub. 1141. The paper forms you send to the SSA must be in scannable format.
Pub. 1141 explains the format that must be used on substitute paper Forms W-2 and W-3.

Preparing Forms W-2 and W-3

Most employers of farmworkers will complete only the following boxes on the 1992 Forms W-2 and W-3. For more information, see the instructions for Form W-2 and Form W-3. If any entry does not apply to you, leave it blank. Also, see Reconciling the Forms W-2, W-3, and 943 on page 13.

Form W-2

Boxes 2 and 3.-Show your business name and address in box 2, and your EIN in box 3 .
Box 4.-This number is assigned by your state. Contact your state for further information on its use.
Box 8.-Show the advance EIC payments made in the year, if any. (See section 9.)
Boxes 5, 19a, and 19b.-Show your employee's social security number in box 5, name in box 19a, and address in box 19b. The number and name must match what the SSA has in its records to ensure the employee receives credit. (See section 7.)

Box 9.-Show Federal income tax withheld.
Box 10.-Show wages paid (including taxable fringe benefits) subject to income tax, whether or not income tax was withheld. (See section 2.)
Box 11.-Show employee social security tax deducted or paid by you for the employee. (See section 2.)
Box 12.-Show wages paid subject to social security taxes. (See section 2.)
Boxes 14 and 15.-Show wages paid and tips reported subject to Medicare taxes in box 14, and show the employee Medicare tax withheld or paid by you for the employee in box 15.
Boxes 24 through 29. - You may use these to report state or local income tax information.

Form W-3

Box 2.-Check the square titled "943" in box 2 .
Box 3.-If you use copies of this form for your state return, you may need to complete this box.
Box 8.-Show the total advance EIC payments, if any, for all employees.
Boxes 5, 18, 20, and 22.-Show the number of Forms W - 2 you are sending with Form W-3 in box 5, your EIN in box 18, your business name in box 20, and the address in box 22.

How Employment Taxes Apply to Farmwork

a. Service on farm* in connection with cultivating soil; raising or harvesting any agricultural or horticultural commodity; the raising, etc., of livestock, poultry, bees, fur-bearing animals, or wildlife.

Section 530 of the Revenue Act of 1978 provides relief from employment taxes on payments to certain workers and Public Law 97-248 extends this relief indefinitely. If you have a reasonable basis for treating a worker other than as an employee, there is no liability for employment taxes on the payments to that worker. To get this relief, you must have filed all required Federal tax returns, including information returns, on a basis consistent with your treatment of the worker. In addition, you (or your predecessor) must not have treated any worker holding a substantially similar position as an employee for any period after 1977.

[^0]Boxes 9, 10, 11, 12, 14, and 15.-Add separately the amounts in boxes $9,10,11$, 12, 14, and 15 of all Forms W-2 and show the totals in boxes $9,10,11,12,14$, and 15 on Form W-3.
Boxes 23 and 24.-Generally, these amounts should agree with the total social security wages and tips, or Medicare wages and tips reported to the IRS. Show only the amounts reported for the 1992 tax year.

13. Magnetic Media Reporting

You may be required to use magnetic media to furnish the information required by Forms W-2, W-2G, 1042S, 1098, 1099, and 5498. Generally, you are required to use magnetic media if you file at least 250 returns on any of the above forms other than Forms 1099-INT, DIV, OID, PATR, and B. Magnetic media reporting is required if you file more than 50 returns on 1099-INT, DIV, OID, or PATR. Any returns filed on Form 1099-B must be on magnetic media. For the requirements for furnishing this information on magnetic media for Form W-2, get Pub. 1141 and write to: Social Security Administration, Attn: Resubmittal Group, 3-E-10 NB, Metro West Building, P.O. Box 2317, Baltimore, MD 21235. For requirements for the Forms 1042S, 1098, 1099, 5498, and W-2G, get Pub. 1220, Specification for Filing Forms 1098, 1099, 5498, and W-2G Electronically or on Magnetic Tape, Cartridge, $51 / 4,31 / 2$, and 8 Inch Magnetic Diskettes, and write to: Internal Revenue Service, Martinsburg Computing Center, P.O. Box 1359, Martinsburg, WV 25401-1359 (or phone 304-263-8700). If filing on magnetic media would be an undue hardship, you can apply for a waiver from this requirement, for 1 year at a time, by filing Form 8508, Request for Waiver From Filing Information Returns on Magnetic Media. Generally, apply for this waiver at least 45 days before the due date of the returns. For more information on obtaining a waiver, see Form 8508.

If you are filing Forms 1099, 1098, 5498, or W-2G data on magnetic media for the first time, you must obtain IRS approval of the data format you plan to use. Form W-2 filers should see SSA's TIB-4 publication.

Filers with access to a personal computer and a modem may also obtain information on magnetic media filing from the electronic Bulletin Board System (BBS) through either the SSA-BBS or the IRP-BBS (IRS). By using your computer and modem, you can access the SSA-BBS by dialing (410) 965-1133 or the IRP-BBS by dialing (304) 263-2749 (these lines are not toll free or for voice use).

14. Paying and Depositing Federal Unemployment (FUTA) Tax

In general, cash wages paid to your farmworkers are subject to the Federal unemployment tax (FUTA) if you:

- paid cash wages of $$ 20,000$ or more to farmworkers in any calendar quarter in 1991 or 1992; or
- employed 10 or more farmworkers during some portion of a day (whether or not at the same time) for at least 1 day during any 20 different weeks in 1991 or 1992.

Count aliens admitted on a temporary basis to the United States to perform farmwork, also known as workers with "H2(A)" visas, to determine if you meet either of the above tests. Wages paid to these aliens are exempt through 1994. (Special Agricultural Workers are not members of this group.)

Farmworkers supplied by a crew leader are considered employees of the farm operator for purposes of the FUTA tax unless (1) the crew leader is registered under the Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Worker Protection Act, or (2) substantially all the workers supplied by the crew leader operate or maintain tractors, harvesting or cropdusting machines, or other machines provided by the crew leader.

You must deposit FUTA tax with an authorized financial institution or the FRB that serves your area. The deposit rules for FUTA tax are different from those for income, social security, and Medicare taxes.

Figure your liability for FUTA tax on a quarterly basis. To determine whether you must make a deposit for any of the first three quarters in 1993, figure your FUTA tax by multiplying by .008 that part of the first $$ 7,000$ of each employee's annual wages that you paid during the quarter. If any part of the first $$ 7,000$ paid to employees is exempt from state unemployment taxes, you may deposit an amount in excess of the .008 rate.

If the amount of FUTA tax for the calendar quarter (plus any undeposited FUTA tax for earlier quarters in the year) is more than $$ 100$, deposit the total amount during the first month following the quarter. If the total amount is $$ 100$ or less, add it to the FUTA tax for the next quarter and do not make a deposit. Do this for the first three quarters of the year. Use Form 8109 to make these deposits.

By J anuary 31, file Form 940 or Form

940-EZ, Employer's Annual Federal Unemployment (FUTA) Tax Return.
Form $940-E Z$ is a streamlined unemployment tax return for filers with uncomplicated tax situations. You can generally use Form 940-EZ if:

- You pay state unemployment taxes (contributions) to only one state;
- You make the payments to the state by the due date of Form 940-EZ; and
- All wages subject to FUTA tax are also subject to state unemployment tax.

If you do not meet these conditions, file Form 940 instead.
If the FUTA tax reported on Form 940 or $940-E Z$ minus the amounts deposited for the first three quarters is more than $$ 100$, deposit the whole amount by J anuary 31. If the tax (minus any deposits) is $$ 100$ or less, you may either deposit the tax or pay it with the return by J anuary 31.
If you make deposits on time in full payment of the tax due for the year, you may file Form 940 or $940-E Z$ on or before February 10.
Once you have filed a Form 940 or 940-EZ, we will send you a preaddressed form near the end of each calendar year. If you do not receive a form, request one from an Internal Revenue Service office in time to file when due.
To amend a return after you have filed it, complete a Form 940 or $940-E Z$ with the revised figures. Check the box above Part I and attach an explanation of the correction.
Note: If you have acquired a business from someone else, you may be able to claim a special credit as a successor employer, under Code section 3302(e). This credit applies only if the previous owner was not an employer liable for the FUTA tax in the year you acquired the business. See Regulations section 31.3302 (e)- 1 for details. Also see Rev. Proc. 84-77, 1984-2 C.B. 753 , for the procedures used in filing returns in a predecessor-successor situation.
Magnetic Tape Filing of Form 940.Reporting agents filing Forms 940 for groups of taxpayers can file them on magnetic tape. See Pub. 1314, Magnetic Tape Reporting of Form 940, Employer's Federal Unemployment Tax Return.

15. Records You Should Keep

Every employer subject to employment taxes must keep all related records available for inspection for at least 4 years after the due date of the return period to which the records relate, or the date the taxes are paid, whichever is later. You may keep the records in whatever form you choose.
Keep a record of:

- Your EIN.
- Names, addresses, social security numbers, and occupations of employees.
- Dates of employees' employment.
- Amounts and dates of all cash wages, noncash payments, annuity, and pension payments.
- Periods for which employees were paid while absent due to sickness or injury, and the amount and weekly rate of payments you or third-party payers made to them.
- Copies of employees' income tax withholding allowance certificates.
- Copies of Form W-5.
- Advance EIC payments.
- Dates and amounts of tax deposits you made.
- Copies of returns filed.
- Any amount deducted as employee social security and Medicare taxes.
- The amount of income tax withheld.
- Records of fringe benefits provided, including substantiation required under Code section 274 and related regulations.
If you did not keep records because you did not expect to pay $$ 2,500$ or more for agricultural labor or did not expect an employee to meet the $$ 150$ test and you later find the wages will be taxable, you should begin keeping records for the employee. Estimate as best you can what you paid the employee previously during the year.

If a crew leader furnished you with farmworkers, you must keep a record of the name, permanent mailing address, and EIN of the crew leader. If the crew leader has no permanent mailing address, record his or her present address.

16. Reconciling the Forms W-2, W-3, and 943

When there are discrepancies between amounts reported on Form 943 filed with the IRS and Forms W-2 and W-3 filed with the SSA, we must contact you to resolve the discrepancies. This costs time and money, both for the Government and for you the employer.
To eliminate errors that can cause discrepancies-

1. Report bonuses as wages and as social security and Medicare wages on Forms W-2 and 943.
2. Report both social security and Medicare wages and taxes separately on Forms W-2, W-3, and 943.
3. Report social security taxes on Form W-2 in the box for social security tax withheld, not as social security wages.
4. Report Medicare taxes on Form W-2 in the box for Medicare tax withheld, not as Medicare wages.
5. Make sure social security and Medicare wage amounts for each employee do not exceed the annual social security and Medicare wage maximum limits (there is a separate limit for each).
6. Do not report noncash wages not subject to social security or Medicare taxes as social security or Medicare wages.

To reduce the discrepancies between amounts reported on Forms W-2, W-3, and 943-

1. Be sure the amounts on Form W-3 are the total amounts from Forms W-2.
2. Reconcile Form W-3 with your Form 943 by comparing amounts reported for-- Social security wages, social security tips, and Medicare wages and tips. The amounts may not match if, for example, you made adjustments for the current year on Form 941c. In this case, the amounts reported in boxes 23 and 24 of Form W-3 should include Form 941c adjustments only for the current year (i.e., if the Form 941c adjustments include amounts for a prior year, do not report those adjustments on the current year Form W-3).

- Social security and Medicare taxes. The amounts shown on the Form 943, including current year adjustments, should be approximately twice the amounts shown on Form W-3.
- Income tax withheld. These amounts may not agree if, for example, income tax withheld was reported on Forms 1099 or W-2G.
- Advance earned income credit.

As noted, amounts reported on Forms W-2, W-3, and 943 may not match for valid reasons. If they do not match, you should determine that the reasons are valid. Keep your reconciliation so you will have a record of why amounts did not match in case there are inquiries from the IRS or the SSA.
Warning: You may be subject to IRS filing penalties for discrepancies made.

Income Tax Withholding and Advance Earned Income Credit (EIC) Payment Methods

Percentage Method

If you do not want to use the wage bracket tables on pages 18 through 37 to figure how much income tax to withhold, you can use a percentage computation based on the table below and the appropriate rate table. This method works for any number of withholding allowances the employee claims.

Use these steps to figure the income tax to withhold under the percentage method:

1. Multiply one withholding allowance (see table below) by the number of allowances the employee claims.
2. Subtract that amount from the employee's wages.
3. Determine amount to withhold from appropriate table on page 16 or 17.

Percentage Method-Amount for One Withholding Allowance

| Payroll Period | One withholding allowance |
| :---: | :---: |
| Weekly | $45.19 |
| Biweekly | 90.38 |
| Semimonthly | 97.92 |
| Monthly | 195.83 |
| Quarterly | 587.50 |
| Semiannually | 1,175.00 |
| Annually | 2,350.00 |
| Daily or miscellaneous (each day of the payroll period). | 9.04 |

Example.-An unmarried employee is paid $$ 450$ weekly. This employee has in effect a Form W-4 claiming two withholding allowances. Using the percentage method, figure the income tax as follows:

1. Total wage payment . . . $$ 450.00$
2. One allowance . . . $$ 45.19$
3. Allowances claimed on Form W-4 . . . 2
4. Line 2 times line 3 . . . 90.38
5. Amount subject to withholding (subtract line 4 from line 1)
$359.62
6. Tax to be withheld on $359.62 from Table 1single person, page 16 46.59

To figure the income tax to withhold, you may reduce the last digit of the wages to zero, or figure the wages to the nearest dollar.
Annual income tax withholding.-Figure the income tax to withhold on annual wages under the Percentage Method of Withholding for an annual payroll period. Then prorate the tax back to the payroll period.
Example.-A married person claims four withholding allowances. She is paid $$ 1,000$ a week. Multiply the weekly wages by 52 weeks to figure the annual wage of $$ 52,000$. Subtract $$ 9,400$ (the value of four withholding allowances) for a balance of $$ 42,600$. The table for the Annual Payroll Period gives a tax of $$ 5,700.50$ to be withheld. Divide the annual tax by 52. The weekly tax is $$ 109.63$.

Wage Bracket Method

Under the wage bracket method, find the proper table (on pages 18 through 37) for your payroll period and the employee's marital status as shown on his or her Form W-4. Then, based on the number of withholding allowances claimed on the Form W-4 and the amount of wages, find the amount of tax to withhold. If your employee is claiming more than 10 withholding allowances, see below.
Note: If you cannot use the wage bracket tables because wages exceed the amount shown in the last bracket of the table, use the percentage method of withholding described on this page. Be sure to reduce wages by the amount of total withholding allowances before using the percentage method tables on pages 16 and 17.

Adjusting Wage Bracket Withholding for Employees Claiming More Than 10 Withholding Allowances

Note: The percentage method of figuring withholding adapts to any number of allowances.
The wage bracket tables can be used if an employee claims up to 10 allowances. More than 10 allowances may be claimed because of the special withholding allowance, additional allowances for deductions and credits, and the system itself. Usually, it is worthwhile for employees to claim all the withholding allowances to which they are entitled.

To adapt the tables to employees with more than 10 allowances:
a. Multiply the number of withholding allowances over 10 by the allowance value for the payroll period. (The allowance values are in the Percentage MethodAmount for One Withholding Allowance table on page 13.)
b. Subtract the result from the employee's wages.
c. On this amount, find and withhold the tax in the column for 10 allowances.
This is a voluntary method. If you use the wage bracket tables, you may continue to withhold the amount in the " 10 " column when your employee has more than 10 allowances, using the method on page 13. You can also use any other methods described below.

Alternative Methods of Income Tax Withholding

Rather than the Percentage or Wage Bracket Methods described on page 13, you can use an alternative method to withhold income tax. Pub. 493, Alternative Tax Withholding Methods and Tables, describes these alternative methods and contains:
a. Formula tables for percentage method withholding (for automated payroll systems).
b. Wage bracket percentage method tables (for automated payroll systems).
c. Combined income, social security, and Medicare tax withholding tables.

Some of the alternative methods explained in Pub. 493 are annualized wages, average estimated wages, cumulative wages, and part-year employment. For more information on alternative methods, also see Regulations sections $31.3402(\mathrm{~h})(1)$-1 through (h)(4)-1.

Advance Payment Methods for the Earned Income Credit

To figure the advance EIC payment, you may use either the Percentage Method or the Wage Bracket Method explained below. You may use other methods for figuring advance EIC payments if the amount of the payment is about the same as it would be using tables in this booklet. See the tolerances allowed in the chart under Other Methods in Pub. 493. See section 9 in this publication for an explanation of the advance payment of EIC.

Percentage Method

If you do not want to use the wage bracket tables to figure how much to include in an employee's wages for the advance EIC payment, you can use the percentage computation based on the appropriate rate table.
Find the employee's gross wages before any deductions in the appropriate table on pages 41 and 42 . There are different tables for (a) single or married employees without spouse filing a certificate, and (b) married employees with both spouses filing certificates. Determine the amount of the advance EIC payment shown in the appropriate table for the amount of wages paid.

Wage Bracket Method

If you use the wage bracket tables on pages 43 through 45 , figure the advance EIC payment as follows.

Find the employee's gross wages before any deductions, using the appropriate table. There are different tables for
(a) single or married employees without spouse filing a certificate, and (b) married employees with both spouses filing certificates. Determine the amount of the advance EIC payment shown in the appropriate table for the amount of wages paid.
With either method, the number of withholding allowances an employee claims on Form W-4 is not used in figuring the advance EIC payment. Nor does it matter that the employee has claimed exemption from income tax withholding on Form W-4.

Whole Dollar Withholding and Paying Advance EIC

The income tax withholding amounts in the wage bracket tables (pages 18 through 37) have been rounded to whole dollar amounts.
When employers use the percentage method (pages 16 and 17) or an alternative method of income tax withholding, the tax for the pay period may be rounded to the nearest dollar.
The wage bracket tables for advance EIC payments (pages 43 through 45) have also been rounded to whole dollar amounts. If you use the percentage method for advance EIC payments (pages 41 and 42 ), the payments may be rounded to the nearest dollar.
If rounding is used, it must be used consistently. Withheld tax amounts should be rounded to the nearest whole dollar by (1) dropping amounts under 50 cents, and (2) increasing amounts from 50 to 99 cents to the next higher dollar. For example, $$ 2.30$ becomes $$ 2$, and $$ 2.80$ becomes $3.

Exhibit of Form 943

(See Form 943 for detailed instructions.)
After you file your first Form 943, we will send you a Form 943 every year with a label showing your name, trade name (if any), EIN, and the calendar year covered by the return. If the label is incorrect or if your address changes, draw a line through the error and correct it.

Line 1.-Enter the total number of farmworkers employed in the pay period that includes March 12. Do not include household employees in your private nonfarm home, persons who receive no pay during the pay period, pensioners, or members of the Armed Forces.

Lines 2 and 4.-Enter the total taxable cash wages you paid during the year to all of your farmworkers who meet either test described in section 3.

Line 3.- Multiply the total cash wages on line 2 by $12.4 \%$.
Line 5.—Multiply the total cash wages on line 4 by $2.9 \%$.
Line 6.-Enter the total Federal income tax you withheld for the year.
Line 10.-Enter the total advance EIC payments, if any, you made for the year.

Line 12.-Enter the total deposits you made for 1992, including final deposit and any overpayment applied from 1991, as shown in your records.

Line 13.-This is the amount, if any, to pay the Internal Revenue Service when you file your return.

Please remember to sign the return, print your name and title, and enter the date.

[^0]:    * Definition of farm.-For purposes of all taxes described in this table, the term "farm" includes stock, dairy, poultry, fruit, fur-bearing animal, and truck farms, orchards, plantations, ranches, nurseries, ranges, and greenhouses or other similar structures used mainly for raising agricultural or horticultural commodities. Forestry and lumbering are not "farmwork" unless the products are for use in the employer's farming operations.
