Dear

This letter responds to a letter dated December 19, 2002, written on behalf of \underline{X} by \underline{X} 's authorized representative, requesting a ruling under § 1362(b)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code.

PLR-169449-02

FACTS

According to the information submitted, \underline{X} was incorporated under State law on d1. X's shareholders, A, B, and C, decided that X would be an S corporation. X's shareholders intended on filing a Form 2553, Election by a Small Business Corporation, on behalf of X, effective on d1. Correspondence and corporate documents provide evidence of their intent. However, due to a miscommunication between X's shareholders and their attorneys, the Form 2553 was not filed timely.

LAW AND ANALYSIS

Section 1362(a) provides that a small business corporation may elect to be an S corporation.

Section 1362(b) provides the rule on when an S election will be effective. Generally, if an S election is made within the first two and one-half months of a corporation's taxable year, then the corporation will be treated as an S corporation for the year in which the election is made. Section 1362(b)(3) provides that if an S election is made after the first two and one-half months of a corporation's taxable year, then the corporation will not be treated as an S corporation until the taxable year after the year in which the S election is made.

Section 1362(b)(5) provides that if (1) an election under § 1362(a) is made for any taxable year after the date prescribed by § 1362(b) for making the election for the taxable year or no § 1362(a) election is made for any taxable year, and (2) the Secretary determines that there was reasonable cause for the failure to timely make the election, then the Secretary may treat the election as timely made for such taxable year and § 1362(b)(3) shall not apply.

CONCLUSION

Based on the facts submitted and representations made, we conclude that \underline{X} has established reasonable cause for its failing to make a timely S election and that \underline{X} is eligible for relief under § 1362(b)(5). Accordingly, if \underline{X} makes an election to be an S corporation by filing with the appropriate Service Center a completed Form 2553 containing an effective date of $\underline{d1}$ within 60 days following the date of this letter, then such election will be treated as timely made. A copy of this letter should be attached to the Form 2553 filed with the Service Center.

Except as expressly provided herein, we express or imply no opinion concerning the federal tax consequences of any aspect of any transaction or item discussed or

Pursuant to a power of attorney on file with this office, we are sending a copy of this letter to \underline{X} 's authorized representative.

This ruling is directed only to the taxpayer who requested it. Section 6110(k)(3) provides that it may not be used or cited as precedent.

Sincerely yours,

/s/
