Information About Your Qualifying Child or Children

Instructions

Purpose of Schedule

If you can take the earned income credit and have a qualifying child, use Schedule EIC to give information about that child. To figure the amount of your credit, use the worksheet in the instructions for Form 1040A, line 29c, or Form 1040, line 54.

If you want the IRS to figure the credit for you, print "EIC" next to line 29c of Form 1040A or line 54 of Form 1040. Also, enter the amount and type of any nontaxable earned income in the spaces provided on Form 1040A, line 29c, or Form 1040, line 54, and attach Schedule EIC to your return.

Line 1

Enter each qualifying child's name.

Line 3a

If your child was born before 1978 but was under age 24 at the end of 1996 and a student, put a checkmark in the "Yes" box.

Your child was a student if he or she—

- Was enrolled as a full-time student at a school during any 5 months of 1996, or
- Took a full-time, on-farm training course during any 5 months of 1996. The course had to be given by a school or a state, county, or local government agency.

A school includes technical, trade, and mechanical schools. It does not include on-the-job training courses or correspondence schools.

Line 3b

If your child was born before 1978 and was permanently and totally disabled during any part of 1996, put a checkmark in the "Yes" box.

A person is permanently and totally disabled if both of the following apply.

1. He or she cannot engage in any substantial gainful activity because of a physical or mental condition.

2. A doctor determines the condition has lasted or can be expected to last continuously for at least a year or can lead to death.

Line 4

You must enter your child's social security number (SSN) on line 4 unless he or she was born in December 1996 or was born and died in 1996. If you do not enter the correct SSN, at the time we process your return, we may reduce or disallow your credit. If your child was born in December 1996 and does not have an SSN, enter "12/96" on line 4. If your child was born and died in 1996 and did not have an SSN, print "Died" on line 4.

If your child does not have an SSN, apply for one by filing Form SS-5 with your local Social Security Administration (SSA) office. It usually takes about 2 weeks to get a number. If your child will not have an SSN by April 15, 1997, you can get an automatic 4-month extension by filing Form 4868 with the IRS by that date.

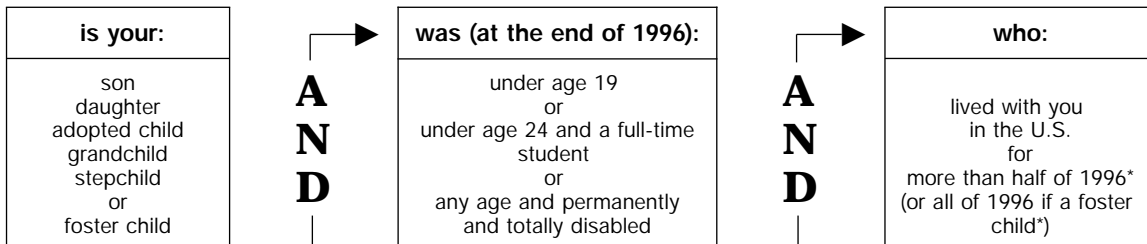

Line 6

Enter the number of months your child lived with you in your home in the United States during 1996. (If you were in the military on extended active duty outside the United States, your home is considered to be in the United States during that duty period.) Do not enter more than 12. Count temporary absences, such as for school, vacation, or medical care, as time lived in your home. If the child lived with you for more than half of 1996 but less than 7 months, enter "07" on this line.

Exception. If your child, including a foster child, was born or died in 1996 and your home was the child's home for the entire time he or she was alive during 1996, enter "12" on line 6.

Qualifying Child

A qualifying child is a child who:

*If the child did not live with you for the required time (for example, was born in 1996), see the Line 6 instructions above.

If the child was married or is also a qualifying child of another person (other than your spouse if filing a joint return), special rules apply. For details, see the instructions for Form 1040A, line 29c, or Form 1040, line 54. Also, the child must have an SSN (as defined in those instructions) unless he or she was born in December 1996 or was born and died in 1996.
